Rumor Says S. J. Taylor Will Leave Traction Co.

Rumors on the street today were to the effect that Sam J. Taylor, secretary of the Oakland Traction Company and the Key Route railway, had resigned his position, though none of the officials of the company would state that such was the case. When interviewed shortly after noon, Vice-President Wm. R. Alberger said that he had heard nothing of the matter and that if a resignation had been presented it had not been brought to his notice. Both Alberger and Taylor left Oakland this afternoon and went to San Francisco, though it could not be determined whether or not their trip had anything to do with the rumored resignation of the latter. It was stated that a meeting of the directors has not been called for the immediate future, so any of the officers it could not formally be presented until such a meeting had been held.

Reciprocity May Pass

"It is generally admitted that few if any of these measures will pass the Senate. Personally, I believe that the reciprocity measure will pass the Senate, but there are many well posted public men in Washington who predict that the bill will not come to a vote, and that if it does, will fall to pass. The vote is very close from present indications.

CAPITALIST MAY NOT SURVIVE HIS WOUND

Victim of Bullet Fired From Revolver in Hands of Adele Virge, Formerly Servant in His Mother's Home

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—Fred Kohl, proprietor of the Kohl building and one of the best known capitalists of this city, was shot and it is believed fatally wounded shortly before 3 o'clock this afternoon in the corridor of the Grant building.

Adele Virge, who is suing a man named Miller in Judge Hunt's court for $30,000 stepped up to Kohl just outside the elevator door on the main floor and fired point blank.

The injured man was taken to the Central Emergency Hospital and the woman promptly arrested. All parties had just been in Judge Hunt's court and had gone down in an elevator from the eighth floor to the main corridor, where the tragedy occurred.

Adele Virge was formerly employed as a servant by Mrs. William Kohl, mother of Frederick Kohl. Her attempt to collect $30,000 from Frederick Kohl as damages for slander and malicious prosecution failed Tuesday in Judge Gasford's department of the Superior Court.

A non-suit was entered after the woman had testified that she was arristed in Riverside January 30, 1909, at the request of Kohl on a charge of insanity.

She accused Kohl of hiring detectives to follow her about and causing her to be discharged from a department store and other places by saying she was of unsound mind.

Witnesses for Kohl, among them Mrs. F. Richardson and Frank Miller of Riverside, testified that the woman imagined she was being talked about by others and on one occasion spat in Miller's face after accusing him of telling people that she was crazy.

Dr. Kohl's attorneys offered the opinion of Judge A. J. Bledsoe of Riverside, who sat on the trial of the Virge woman on the charge of insanity, to the effect that she was dangerously insane.

A suit against Miller for malicious arrest on a charge of insanity at the instigation of Kohl will be tried today.

MIND BLANK OAKLAND AND ANTIOCH HAS FOR TEN DAYS

That the Oakland & Antioch railroad, plans extensive operations in this city, which it hopes to reach from Contra Costa county late in the fall, was evidenced today when officials of the new road entered into negotiations with the Realty Syndicate for the purchase of $35,000 worth of property in addition to that which they now own.

It was also learned today that the road has paid in the neighborhood of $65,000 for a terminal and depot site on the north side of Fortieth street from Opal to Webster, and further out on Shafter, where yards will be established and shops constructed.

A SMOKER CAN SAVE INTEREST ON SEVEN THOUSAND DOLLARS

By Purchasing Cigars at Cut Rate Prices at Osgoods' Smokers Can Make 6% On Above Sum; Great Nickel Cigar Making a Big Hit.

One of the best illustrations of the importance of watching the pennies occurred at the cigar department of Osgoods' Drug Store, Twelfth and Washington, recently.

An old gentleman, apparently well-to-do, came in to get some cigars. He bought three El Sidelos for 30 cents, and as he started to leave he was addressed by a younger man, who was standing at the counter.

"Hello, Mr. L—; what are you doing way down here?" said the younger man.

"Why, I just came down to get some cigars," the old gentleman answered.

"You don't mean to tell me that you came clear down here to save 7 1/2 cents on three cigars?" exclaimed the younger man.

"Yes, sir, I did," replied the elderly gentleman seriously. "I walked 12 blocks to save that 7 1/2c, and let me tell you something. See that dollar, and he held up a dollar. 'Well, sir, I can come down here and make that dollar earn me 20c. Now, when you come to think of it it's pretty hard to make a dollar earn 8c in a whole year, let alone 20c in 30 minutes. It is worth walking 12 blocks to accomplish that and let me tell you, young man, if you can make every dollar you earn pay you half of 20c on every year of your life you can afford to go into the perpetual marathon walking business."

There is a great deal in the old gentleman's advice, as people with money to loan can testify. It is the hardest thing in the world to make a dollar earn 6 cents, and success is measured by the attention we give to little things.

Notice right along that our best customers are our most successful business men," remarked the manager of the cigar department to the writer as the old man walked out. "They are the men who appreciate what the saving means. Say we sell a man 4 cigars a day. That means 10c saved a day, or $36 a year, which is 6 per cent interest on $7000. In fact, a man with $7000 out at interest who pays 12 1/2c for cigars that we sell at 10c is no better off, as far as his investment is concerned, than the clerk without a dollar who is shrewd enough to save the dime a day."

Osgood has two stores, one at Washington and Twelfth and the other at Seventh and Broadway. The cigar departments are just inside the main entrance. He sells all the standard 12 1/2c brands for 10c and all the popular nickel brands for 7 1/2c. He also sells a splendid 10c cigar called "El Cuto" for a nickel. This particular cigar is at present attracting a great many smokers, and is way ahead of any smoke to be had for 5 cents and in fact ranks high as a 10-cent grade in other stores.

'PHOENIX CITY' IS LAUDED BY AKED

Noted Divine Speaks at Home Missionary Convention.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—The 85th annual convention of the Congregational Home Missionary society opened a two-day session at the First Congregational church in this city last evening, the 6000 Congregational churches in the United States being represented at the convention by more than 800 ministers.

Rev. Charles F. Aked, the home pastor, gave the address of welcome last night to the thousands of more persons present, Rev. S. H. Woodford, president of the national organization, making the response.

Rev. O. C. Granger of the Chicago theological seminary, superintendent of the Dano-Norwegian department of the church, opened the meeting with a service of worship. Rev. E. L. Smith, pastor of the Pilgrim Congregational church, Seattle, offered the prayer.

Rev. Aked, in his address, lauded San Francisco and her people, and told the visiting clergymen in glowing terms of the city's remarkable rise from the disaster of a few short years ago.

"The moral manhood of the people triumphed over the earthquake and fire," he said.

"There has been nothing like it in the history of the human race. Rudyard Kipling, in those days in which the prophet heard of him burned like flame, before he degenerated into the banjo bard of the British empire, saw the heroic greatness of this people. As in his 'Envoi,' it is here that the blindest bluffs hold good, the wildest tales are true, men bulk big and life runs large, and there is no touch of meanness in our blood. This is the glory of our empire of the golden west.

"The right to be better men and women than we are, purer, more devout, more spiritual."

"Perhaps you have brought us a message of spirituality, a word of richer service, a note of deeper sacrifice."

The convention will conclude Friday evening.

WELLS-FARGO LINES EXTENDED

George J. Gould Sells Pacific Express Company to His Powerful Rival.

The Wells-Fargo Express Company, after negotiations extending over two months, has purchased George J. Gould's Pacific Express Company and is now the largest express company in the world. The deal was consummated through William Sproule, formerly of San Francisco and now president of Wells-Fargo. A. C. Christensen, vice-president and general manager of the company's affairs on this coast and in Mexico, has gone east, to help perfect the details of the purchase, the consideration for which has not been made public.

Wells-Fargo has greatly strengthened itself between the Rocky mountains and the Mississippi river against its two powerful rivals, the American and the United States Express Companies. In acquiring the Pacific Express Company, which has express privileges over 15,000 miles of road, Wells-Fargo has increased its express mileage to 65,000.

The Pacific Express has earned, for as high as $5,000,000 a year. Last year its gross receipts were a little more than $3,000,000.

Why Gould should sell the Pacific Express, doing business on his line east of Denver, and still retain the Globe Express on the Denver & Rio Grande and Western Pacific, is a mystery. The fact that it was hard hit a year ago, when the Union Pacific cancelled the express privilege and gave it to the American Express Company, may explain the mystery. The Pacific had been operating on the Union Pacific for years.

STEVENS BLAMED FOR

OAKLAND OFFERED SIERRA WATER SUPPLY

San Francisco Corporation Would Sell Rights to the City.

60,000,000 GALLONS
DAILY IS PROMISED

The Same Property Has Been Tendered to City Across the Bay.

Offers of a water supply from the high Sierras as yet undeveloped, nearer than the Hetch-Hetchy-Lake Eleanor project, has been made to the city of Oakland as a substitute for the taking over of the Peoples Water Company plant by condemnation proceedings. The offer is not taken very seriously by the city officials, as the same supply has been tendered in vain to San Francisco.

The offer comes in the form of a letter to Councilman William J. Baccus, who is a member of the new city council, and who introduced the resolution creating a municipal water commission for Oakland. It is known as the Sierra-Blue Lakes watershed, the property of the Sierra-Blue Lakes Water & Power Company, of which Eugene J. Sullivan of San Francisco is president. A supply of 60,000,000 gallons a day is assured for an expenditure of $20,000,000.

DETAILS OF PLAN.

Details of the plan include a watershed in Calaveras, Alpine and Amador counties of 534 square miles, a storage reservoir of fifty billion gallons capacity and conditions available for an electric power plant which will produce 60,000 horsepower without extra cost. The letter will be filed with the city council at the regular meeting next week.

The same offer has been made to Berkeley, and may be taken under consideration by the new city council. Oakland officials look with some suspicion upon the offer, as so far it has not been investigated thoroughly by independent experts.

There is considerable speculation as to the meaning of the offer brought by Russell L. Dunn, a stockholder in the Peoples Water Company, upon the taking over of the property of the corporation by the city.

SITUATION COMPLICATED.

Dunn, in his charges that the stock has been manipulated in a fraudulent manner, has introduced a resolution to "squeeze the water out of the stocks and place it in the pipes to make the corporation solvent."

In the complaint filed by Dunn a list of the company's properties appended, and in the court procedure facts may be adduced that will assist the city later on in fixing a fair valuation on the physical properties of the company.

The third member of the municipal water commission has not yet been named. It is understood that before the selection is made the two water commissioners so far appointed, President Dornier of the council and George W. Pendleton, and members of the new city council will hold a conference over the matter.

BURGLAR CAUGHT WITH HIS LOOT

Thief Confesses He Planned for Some Time to Rob
Billy Abbott.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—After carefully planning for several days to make his haul, selecting his man and arranging his plan of action, Eugene Bowen, a cook, obtained $1500 in money and jewelry from the room of Billy Abbott, well known in sporting circles, and was arrested a half hour after the commission of the crime by the police.

The theft was perpetrated about 4 o'clock this morning in the lodging house at 353 Kearny street, and in Bowen the police may have the palmy burglar who has been operating in a number of downtown hotels and rooming houses. Abbott was asleep when the intruder, using a pass key, made his way into the apartment in his bare feet, took a diamond locket and stud, a silver match box and other trinkets, valued at $1200, and $347 in cash.

A short time afterward Abbott awoke. He promptly discovered that his watch was missing from beneath his pillow, and made an inventory of his effects. By a telephone call to the police, detectives Conlan and Cavanaugh were notified, and they, together with Policeman Armstrong, searched the adjoining rooms. In one of them Bowen was found and with him the loot.

He had been planning this for some time," he confessed to the officers. "I purposely took the room next to Abbott."

He was charged with burglary.

GLAD IN NIGHT GOWN, VANISHES

Woman's Strange Disappearance
From Home Stirs the Police to Activity.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—Left lying asleep in her room at 576 Birch avenue by her husband, who had escorted her home, Mrs. Lem Kuhl was missing two hours later under mysterious circumstances which have roused the police to action.

The woman was clad only in her night clothing, covered over with a long tan coat, and it is hardly likely that she could have proceeded far without attracting notice. The disappearance occurred on June 6, when Mrs. Kuhl was found slightly ill on the street by her spouse, who took her home and stayed with her until she had retired.

Having a dinner engagement he left, later hurrying home, only to find her missing. She is 28 years old, with blue eyes and auburn hair, five feet five inches tall, and weighs 130 pounds. The couple have two children.

ACTOR AND WIFE OVERCOME BY GAS

Frank and Grace Taylor Have Narrow Escape From Death.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—Overcome by the deadly fumes of illuminating gas escaping from a small stove, Frank Taylor and his wife, Grace, who are to open at the Orpheum on Sunday, were almost asphyxiated this morning and the woman is in a serious condition at the Central Emergency hospital.

The Taylors are temporarily residing at the Hotel Argyle, 146 McAllister street, and occupy adjoining apartments. A stove used for heating had been turned off from the burner and not from the jet from which suspended a rubber hose.

The gas escaping through filled the apartment in which Mrs. Taylor slept and was communicated through to her husband's room. Both were discovered at 10 o'clock this morning and rushed to the Central Emergency Hospital, where Taylor quickly revived and was restored to consciousness. Mrs. Taylor, although in a weakened condition, is believed to be reviving.

PARIS, June 8.—Auto estimates, that Vedrine, the winner of the Paris to Madrid race, whose proper name is Jules Vedrine, attained the prodigious speed of 155 miles an hour on Tuesday, covering the 77 1/2 miles separating Dijon and Saint Laurent-Les-Macon, in thirty minutes.

The paper quotes the aviator as saying that he was pushed by a wind so violent that at times he flew with the tail of his air-machine perpendicular.

He also encountered wind pockets that caused his machine to make frightful drops, sometimes descending 900 feet in a few seconds. Vedrine suffered only through the strain on his eyes.

$100,000 DREDGER IS LAUNCHED AT LOCAL YARDS

Oakland Artisans Will Repair Steamer Kilburn of N. P. C. Co.'s Fleet.

The new $100,000 dredger being built at the local yards of the Golden State Dredgers' Iron Works was launched yesterday and is having part of its machinery installed. Within a few days the hull will be set up before the timber work is completed.

The dredger is one of many that the company has built and sold in the last few years. The dredger Stern, belonging to the United States Dredging Company, will be repaired at the Golden State yards shortly.

The E. A. Kilburn, of the North Pacific Coast Steamship company's fleet, was taken from the Pacific Shipyards & Ways yesterday to San Francisco to have its boiler and other machinery installed. The vessel will then be brought to the local yards to be finished before going into commission on the freight and passenger run for its owners. The Kilburn is being rebuilt by the Pacific Shipyards & Ways concern and when completed will be one of the most elegantly fitted up passenger steamers on the coast. The vessel was partially destroyed by fire off Long wharf last summer.

One of the harbor commission dredgers arrived at the above yards today for extensive repairs.

VESSELS ARRIVE

The steamer Dee arrived in Oakland harbor yesterday and left lumber at the De Fremery wharf. The schooner Daisy unloaded 35,000 feet of lumber at Adams wharf yesterday for the F. B. Gallagher Company.

These vessels docked at Long wharf yesterday.

The M. F. Plant, Captain Griffith, from Seattle, left miscellaneous freight and loaded a mixed cargo for the north; the Grace Barton, Captain Jones, left a quantity of flour; the Elyon, Captain Craggs, from Hilo, took on 500,000 feet of lumber for Australian ports; the Casco, Captain Ahlin, from Columbia river, left 4000 ties.

One of the Cotton Brothers' pierships is being got in readiness for work on the city wharf being built at the foot of Livingston street. It is being repaired at the Webster street slip.

COMPLAINT FILED AGAINST HAVENS RATHER INDEFINITE

Attorney and Friends of the Millionaire Do Not Take the Matter Seriously

The publication of the substance of the complaint of Russell L. Dunn, stockholder in the Peoples Water Company, asking the superior court to compel Francis C. Havens, the president of that corporation, to make restitution in the sum of $4,200,000 to the complainant and other stockholders of the company in question for alleged fraudulent procurement of bonds valued at that amount has caused considerable comment.

Friends of Havens say that he left for the east last Monday for the purpose of taking a rest for three or four weeks, and that the charges were not formulated until the first or second day after his departure.

Attorney Edward Engs, who is the personal attorney for President Havens, declined this morning to speak on the subject on the ground that it was not proper for him as the attorney for Mr. Havens to discuss the case. He was evidently greatly displeased, however, at the adverse publicity which the alleged claimant had taken, of the absence of the president in the east, the complaint, he said, being filed almost as soon as the defendant had left the state in search of a much needed rest.

It is a COALITION.

Friends of Havens say that the Peoples Water Company was formed of several minor corporations, among them being the Contra Costa and the Contra Costa Water Companies. The latter corporation was under the control of P. A. Smith and F. C. Havens. The how Smith and F. C. Havens took place over, was before a separation took place between these two distinguished financiers. They were the heartiest stockholders in the corporation which owned quite a number of extensive tracts of land which were subsequently secured by purchase by the Peoples Water Company. This property comprised land which was added to the watershed of the Peoples Water Company. For this property the bonds in question were issued to Smith and Havens, the latter acting as the agent for all the people interested as stockholders in the Peoples Water Company.

DISSECT COMPLAINT.

He declared, however, that the case would not have long standing when it should come up for trial. Other friends criticized the manner in which the complaint had been drawn. These said there was in the instrument not one positive allegation that was sworn to. The complaint, because it pretended to show that the complainant had positive knowledge of the acts referred to, whereas all

This will leave the way open for the city council to grant the franchise without further interference.

LAUNDRYMEN OPEN KNOWLAND TELLS OF TAFT SEES 150,000 CHILDREN IN A PARADE

Mayor Mott Welcomes Delegates of Southern California Association.

With more than 100 delegates in attendance, the eleventh semi-annual convention of the Southern California Laundrymen's Association opened at 10:30 o'clock this morning in Pythian Castle, Twelfth and Alce streets. Mayor Frank K. Mott made the address of welcome and voiced the sentiment of the citizens in extending to the visitors a hearty word and the freedom of the city for the three days' session. The Mayor told them of the great undertakings that are now under way in Oakland, saying that the progress of this city reflected upon the whole state as it is but a factor in the upbuilding of California through commerce and manufactures.

P. F. Ferguson responded and introduced L. H. Egan, president of the national association. In the course of his remarks Egan stated that it was the intention of the organization to institute a campaign, having as its object the securing of the national convention of laundrymen for this city in 1915, when it is expected that the proposed municipal convention hall will be completed.

ADDRESS MEETING.

Other speakers were G. S. Shimmelin of Los Angeles, who is secretary of the Southern organization; Nelson Snyder of San Diego and Lee Cathcart of the same city. Those who addressed the gathering were: L. H. Egan, Sacramento; L. A. Ryan, L. A. Herriek, L. A. Farwell and George M. Munger Jr. of Los Angeles, who is president in the absence of President N. Bonillo, whose wife died several days ago.

The visiting delegates are the guests of the local laundrymen, who have headquarters at the St. Mark hotel. Plans for the entertainment have been completed, the program including a banquet to be held Saturday night at Piedmont in following a sight-seeing auto ride about the surrounding territory.

Outside of the reports of committees no business was transacted this morning and the afternoon was given over to completing the registration of delegates and general sociability.

LUNCHEON SERVED.

At noon adjournment was made until 2 o'clock and the committees retired to Pabst cafe in Eleventh street, where a special luncheon was served in the honor of the local club. This evening at Pythian castle, George M. Munger Jr. will give an entertainment with lantern slides depicting scenes in the canal zone and along the route of the great ditch. As he recently returned from that part of the world his lecture is eagerly looked forward to by the delegates.

Tomorrow morning the regular business meeting will be held at 10 o'clock. Afternoon business will be held at 2 o'clock. The program for the evening will be the procedure.

Members of the Alameda county organization who form the committees of arrangements for the convention are: Joseph L. Harker, chairman; Geo. B. Ferguson, secretary; P. L. Egan, J. O. Rogers and Joseph Burroughs. J. O. Rogers is chairman of the reception committee. The president of the local organization is B. L. Herriek, while George B. Ferguson is secretary-treasurer.

ILLUSTRATED LECTURE.

An illustrated lecture on "The Spell of Italy" will be given by the Rev. F. S. Brush of Alameda at the Fourth Congregational church, Grove and Thirty-sixth streets, tomorrow evening.

Clergyman's Son Cured of Tuberculosis

To neglect a cold, bronchitis, lung trouble, consumption, is dangerous. Take Bockman's Alternative, because it is effective in Tuberculosis. Plenty of evidence from live witnesses.

Amelia, N. Y. Gentlemen: "Prior to February, 1908, I was suffering from a dangerous consumption. I had been ill for some time and had lost much weight. I was unable to do any work and was in a very weak condition. I had been told that I was dying and was very despondent. I was then advised to take Bockman's Alternative and I did so. I am now perfectly healthy and able to do any work. I am now a member of the First Presbyterian Church. I wish to add my endorsement to every word of my son's testimonial."

(Signed) Pastor Presbyterian Church. Fuller details of above case on request. Bockman's Alternative is for Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Affections. For sale by the Owl Drug Stores and other leading druggists. Ask for booklet of cured cases, and write to Bockman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa. for additional evidence.

FAIR ROUSES INTEREST.

"Much interest is being manifested throughout the east in the Panama Exposition, and in all sections of the country thousands are planning to visit the Golden State in 1915. Now that the contest before congress has been settled and San Francisco has won there is a general sentiment even among those who are opposed to the exposition, that the city was selected which will make the greatest success of the exposition. I hope the site will soon be selected so that the President can make an official visit to Panama for the purpose of viewing the progress of the work on the isthmus. "Ships will be able to pass through the canal during the latter part of 1915," declared Congressman Knowland. "While the canal will not be formally opened until January, 1915, it is now possible to subject the somewhat complicated machinery used in the operation of the locks to full view. It is a very interesting sight and a force of employees is trained for this special work. "Colonel Goehring, one of the members of the commission are determined that there shall be no complications because of failure to let the canal be opened when the great canal is officially opened. "Congressman Knowland, who is a member of the house committee on interstate and foreign commerce, which committee has jurisdiction over canal legislation, stated that congress will determine the question of canal tolls. He is making a special study of this question from the standpoint of the shipping interests of the Pacific coast."

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

"HAPPY DAYS ON THE FARM" IS NO MISNOMER

CROPS YIELD MILLIONS YEARLY

Greenbacks in Rhubarb, Gold in Apricots and Silver in Cherries.

Prosperity Reigns Wherever Products of the Soil Abound.

There is an ancient aphorism which reads, "He who laughs last laughs best." Bearing that truism in mind, it is not unreasonable after all that the suburbanite and the farmer can smile so joyously at the caricatures of themselves which daily appear in the newspapers, for they have all the best of it on the drier in the cities in the way of real, solid comfort and actual independence. Therefore, with them it is to laugh at the dinner as well as at the lining, and to chuckle complacently as they contemplate their picturesque homesteads or the fatness of their broad acres. Rapid transit facilities have brought the city and the country into such close touch it is really but a step, so to speak, from the asphalt floors of the compressing channels of commerce into the lush crops of verdant fields and the freedom of the open. The nearness of place established by the wizardry of steam and electricity has brought market and acre into juxtaposition to the financial betterment of the agriculturalist, and has placed the delights of suburban residence within reach of those who toil amid the towers of trade. These conditions, applicable in a sense to every city, are particularly true of Oakland. In fact, there are few municipalities of similar population and modernity where the urban and suburban are in such proximity.

Board an east-bound train, and within fifteen minutes you are transported to as attractive a suburban section as ever induced a present-day cliff dweller to forsake the hard heart of the city to rear a home amid fields white with clover. Continue the journey a few miles further and you are in the midst of the fertile farm and orchard lands of Alameda county, and yet are within thirty-five minutes from Broadway. A twenty-minute car service keeps you in touch at all times with business affairs down town, and if the place of your abode be to the west of San Leandro the additional advantage of a ten-minute car service is afforded. The country here, and from business is across a landscape rich in scenic beauty, and it made by automobile or carriage is over the very best roads in this state; which is a statement of potent significance for the California boasts of some mighty good roads.

WEALTH OF THE LAND.

The orchardists and agriculturalists of Alameda county are recognized as well favored in the way of climate and soil, and actually can step from beneath their roofs any day in the year and see their wealth growing on vine, tree and plant. These are the lands where the farmer can glance across his acres and count his dollars in the good old summer time, but the Alameda county husbandman can do so all the time. In other words, he is in the money perennially.

Take the month of February as an illustration. During that period of variable climatic conditions, the greater portion of the land in this broad United States is lying fallow. Not so in Alameda county. The crops here are being harvested then, and is traveling toward the ice-bound East by the train load, a veritable harbinger of spring. Its value to the grower is never less than $260 per acre.

DECISION ON RATES AIDS CONTRA COSTA

Through Tariff Is Ordered Between Santa Fe and Oakland and Antioch.

One of the most important features in the future development of Contra Costa county is the recent decision of the State Board of Railroad Commissioners ordering a through tariff between the Santa Fe Railroad and the Oakland & Antioch electric line. This order not only affects this valley locally, but is of far-reaching importance, as it means the development of shipping facilities in districts which have heretofore been isolated, while having the benefit of an electric line.

The connection with the Santa Fe will be established at Bay Point and shipments can be made from any point on the Oakland & Antioch Railway to any point on the Santa Fe. The order not only affects this valley locally, but is of far-reaching importance, as it means the development of shipping facilities in districts which have heretofore been isolated, while having the benefit of an electric line.

SCENE IN REALTY SYNDICATE'S SCENIC TRACT NEAR REDWOOD

GOLDEN APRICOTS.

Approximately 20,000 tons of apricots will be harvested this year in the orchards adjacent to Hayward, according to the statement of L. E. Walsh, secretary of the Hayward chamber of commerce. Owing to the almost total failure of that crop at other points in California and elsewhere, the local growers will realize $70 per ton for the fruit on the trees. This means that the aggregate value of the local crop will approximate $1,400,000.

In a normal year the crop fetches an average of $40 per ton, which means that under such circumstances the growers of apricots in the vicinity of Hayward receives a lump sum for that fruit approximating $800,000. It is estimated that there are about 16,000 people domiciled in the section tributary to Hayward. On that basis the apricot crop this year will have a per capita value of $38.33, and in a normal year a per capita value of $53.33. Compare these per capita values with those pertaining to the average landowner, and you will be awakened to a realization that the humor of the joke on the farmer is often to be best appreciated by that individual himself.

WHERE THE CHERRY IS KING.

The cherry is king out San Leandro way, and tomorrow and next day his votaries will do him homage with feasting and high carousing. His kingship is worth seven cents per pound this season, and as he is a pretty weighty sovereign his value in dollars and cents to the people of San Leandro and vicinity is large. The aggregate weight of the crop this year approximates 10,000 tons, its value per ton being about $140. Under such financial conditions it is not to be wondered at that the people of San Leandro hold an annual fete in honor of the cherry.

Spread over a town the size of San Leandro the amount received for the cherry crop will go a long way toward buying bread and butter and shoes and clothing. But that sum doesn't begin to represent the annual composite income of the inhabitants of the town and of the farms and orchards in its vicinity. The cherry crop is just one of a number which are raised each year in that section of suburban Oakland. Truck gardening, for instance, yields an average of half a million dollars per year to the San Leandro folks. So prosperous are conditions out that way, the man who is in debt is an anomaly. The bank there is spilling over with deposits, and as but comparatively few have need to borrow, a generous proportion of the bank's money is invested in gilt-edge mortgages and securities elsewhere.

PEARS ARE PRETTY PICKINGS.

Pears are pretty good pickings in the area lying between San Leandro and Hayward and to the east and south of the latter town. The crop this season will have an approximate aggregate weight of 10,000 tons, and is already being contracted for by local commission men and buyers for the various canneries. The husky Bartlett is the pear more generally sought by the cannery representatives, while the harder varieties—better adapted for shipping—are the ones sought by the commission men. Hayward and San Leandro pear-growers are somewhat reluctant to venture an estimate on the aggregate value of the crop so far in advance of the harvesting, but our figures obtained it is safe to predict that its value will not fall below $100,000. About 10,000 acres adjacent to the towns of San Leandro and Hayward are utilized for the growing of pears and other fruits. Apricots head the list in yield and value, with cherries second and pears third. The aggregate value of the entire fruit crop marketed from the orchards in the vicinity of the towns mentioned never, under the most adverse conditions, is less than $1,000,000, and under normal conditions average a trifle better than $2,000,000.

THE FLAVOR OF THE EGG.

Five million dozen eggs, worth on an average thirty cents per dozen, is the estimated output and value of hen fruit the current year from the poultry ranches in the vicinity of Hayward. A prominent member of the Hayward Poultry Association is authority for the foregoing statement, together with the further statement that he would not be surprised if the aggregate value of the egg production for the year were $1,700,000. If his prediction proves true, the average price the raiser at Hayward will receive for eggs will be thirty-four cents per dozen, the premise being based upon an annual yield of five million dozen. Pretty good flavor in other ways to those Hayward eggs, too, for they command from one to two cents more per dozen in the Oakland markets than do those shipped in from other points.

"Egg money" represents quite a percentage of the more than a million and a quarter dollars deposited in Hayward banks. The city is supplied with all the modern conveniences, was endowed by Carnegie some years ago with a public library, which with its site cost $20,000; has two well-edited semi-weekly newspapers, and is the peer of any suburban town in the State in the matter of public schools. The school trustees have in contemplation the purchase of a centrally-located tract of 12 acres upon which it is proposed to erect an $80,000 union high school. A portion of the acreage surrounding the building is to be utilized as an experimental farm by the pupils.

OTHER FERTILE FIELDS.

Beyond Hayward lies an expansive area of fertile farms and fruit-laden orchards, and a number of the most prosperous suburban towns in Alameda county. In the vicinity of Pleasanton is located the famous Hearst ranch, the country home of unostentatiously philanthropic Mrs. Phoebe Hearst, to whose good offices the University of California is debtor. Nearby is the Sunol valley, where was bred and born Lou Dillon, queen of trotting horses and holder of the record. Already in touch with Oakland by rail, this section is ripe for even better transportation facilities, thereby affording the agriculturalist an even more convenient market than at present, and enhancing the value of this land. Near the town of Livermore are located some of the largest and most prolific vineyards in California. The grapes for which the section is famous make a wine whose bouquet and flavor is more delicate than that distilled from any other American-grown grape.

The town of Newark, another Alameda county community whose future is assured, will, within a few years, rival Richmond as a foundry and manufacturing center. Real estate there, like realty between Oakland and Hayward, has, in value, risen within a few years. It seems certain garded as the most logical place at which to establish the main railroad shops of the system. Appreciating the advantages this town will enjoy as a point of importance in transcontinental traffic, a number of manufacturing plants have been established there of late, and yet others are to be established there in the immediate future. Numerically and commercially Newark is growing more rapidly than any other suburban town in Alameda county. It is the site of salt works, canneries, foundry, planing mills and other industries, and is in general a bustling, hustling and wide-awake community.

DEMAND FOR SUBURBAN LAND.

The demand for suburban real estate is on the increase both here and elsewhere in California, and from all reports on hand is deduced the fact that the demand will be yet further increased as the months go by. From all portions of the United States people are coming to California to take up a permanent residence, and a good many of them are what are termed "colonists." That is, people who establish themselves on the fertile farm and fruit lands of this State. Alameda county attracts many of the latter, and likewise draws to itself people from other sections of California. As an illustration in point, the fact is cited that the real estate firm of McHenry & Kaiser sold during the months of April and May $65,000 worth of San Francisco men the old Clay estate, which consists of some three hundred acres, eighty of which are in prunes, grapes and almonds. The French prunes are of an exceptionally fine, sweet quality and demand a good price. This year, especially, prunes are higher than they have been for years, and all indications point to the continuance of a high price, for the reason that the market is exhausted.

MARYSVILLE SECTION.

Frank A. Parish, manager of the exchange and country land department of Lewis & Mitchell, Incorporated, reports great activity in the Sacramento valley, near Marysville and Wheatland. Large tracts are being subdivided and great opportunities are offered the small investors. Anyone looking for a section where things are humming cannot make a mistake in investigating this beautiful and fertile section. It is reported that over thirteen million dollars has been expended in subdividing properties in the vicinity of Marysville and Wheatland within the past twelve months. The fine soil and abundant water supply of the section makes investments absolutely safe, and the rapid develop-

VACATION DAYS PROVE COSTLY

Burglars Loot Merguire Home While the Family Is Away.

Vacation days will prove costly to F. A. Merguire of 675 Thirty-first street, as burglars last night broke into his residence and looted the place, taking jewelry, plate and other belongings valued at $142.50. Merguire and his family are spending their vacation at Placerville and will be home Saturday to receive news of the loss.

Report of the burglary was made this morning by O. M. Adams, who is a roomer at the Merguire residence. Adams left the house locked up yesterday morning at 7 o'clock and did not return until 10:30 last night. In his absence the rear door leading to the kitchen had been jammed open and the house ransacked from cellar to attic and looted. Neighbors declare that no one of a suspicious appearance had been seen about the house during the day, and the police believe the burglary was committed between dark and the hour at which Adams returned to the place.

The burglars worked systematically and took everything of value of a portable nature in the house. Clothing and jewelry belonging to Adams was included in the loot taken by the thieves. Clothing as well as silverware and jewelry formed part of the plunder. A suit case belonging to Adams was used to carry the loot away. A comparison of the stolen articles will not be made until the Merguire family returns.

James Kerwin of Jones avenue, Elmhurst, reported to the police this morning that one of his employees had stolen four Mrs. Bell with a deep gash in her head. She was taken to the receiving hospital for treatment.

Chair Came Down On Woman's Head

Frank M. Bell declares that He Didn't Do It, But Wife Says He Did.

Frank M. Bell was unable to explain to Judge George S. Snyder this morning how it happened that his wife's head had come in sharp contact with the leg of a chair with which Bell was exercising himself to sober up after being drunk. People in the neighborhood of 1217 Webster street, where Mrs. Bell conducts a lodging house to support her husband and minor child, were alarmed to hear cries coming from the rear of the place. The police were notified and found Mrs. Bell with a deep gash in her head. She was taken to the receiving hospital for treatment.

Bell crawled under the house after the affray with his wife and it required a squad of police and Detective Richard McCreary, with Patrolman Benjamin Reinhardt to pry him out of his hole. He was charged with drunkenness.

"Your foolish wife has refused to charge you with anything," said Prosecutor Attorney Hennessey to Bell in court this morning. "You are an idle, lazy brute. You get drunk and brutally mistreat your wife."

"I am a man of principle and would not strike a woman," said Bell. Bell was found guilty and will be sentenced tomorrow morning.

CONDITION OF STOKES NOT ALARMING

Surgeons State That Wounded Hotel Man Is in No Immediate Danger.

Attorney Asserts, Millionaire Will Prosecute His Girl Assailants.

NEW YORK, June 8.—The condition of W. E. D. Stokes, the millionaire proprietor of the Hotel Ansonia, and widely known horseman who was shot last night by two young women in their apartments, was such this morning that his physicians say he will probably recover. The young women, Lillian Graham, an actress, and Ethel Conrad, an illustrator, formally charged with the shooting, were taken to police headquarters this morning on the verge of collapse. Three Japanese servants in the apartment house in West Eleventh street, where Stokes was shot, are held as witnesses.

Miss Graham and Miss Conrad will be arraigned in court later and held to await the result of Mr. Stokes' injuries. A further examination will be made to ascertain whether the two bullets still remain in the millionaire's ankle and thigh. Torrance McManus, Mr. Stokes' attorney, says that his client went to the girls' apartment on receiving a message from Miss Conrad, to obtain some letters. Stokes denies that he had ever written her any letters. When he reached the apartment, he found the door locked behind him and Miss Graham immediately drew a revolver, and, pointing to a pad on a desk at one side, she said: "Give me $25,000 and sign this agreement."

McManus says that Stokes refused and that "thereupon Miss Graham fired two shots at him."

SECURES REVOLVER. Stokes got the revolver away from Miss Graham, who then, according to McManus, called on Miss Conrad to fire. Miss Conrad, Stokes' lawyer says, fired, and as the millionaire backed into the hallway, three Japanese servants set on him.

Miss Graham, in a statement, says that Stokes came to her apartment and demanded letters which he admitted writing. When told that she had no letters, Miss Graham, Stokes' lawyer says, turned on him in a fury and caught me by the throat and began to choke me."

Miss Graham then alleges that, fearing violence at Stokes' hands, she shot him, whereupon Stokes wrenched the pistol from her hand and shot at her. Miss Graham says nothing about the charge made by Stokes' counsel that Miss Conrad fired a shot.

Stokes says he met Miss Graham and her sister, Mrs. John Singleton, of Los Angeles, some time ago here. He only knew Miss Conrad slightly.

WILL PROSECUTE. In a will statement today, in which he said that Stokes would prosecute the two young women, McManus added that Stokes had received a message from Miss Conrad telling him that if he wanted the letters he had written Graham, he might come and get them.

"Why, Mr. Stokes did not remember writing any letters, and certainly no compromising ones," continued Mr. McManus, "but he thought as he had been married recently he had better collect any letters to other women."

After the girls and the Japanese servants had been "lined up" with the numerous other arrests at police headquarters they were transferred to the West Side police court. As yet they were not charged with any crime.

It was said that Mr. Stokes would not be able to appear in court for about three days.

ROBBER CONVICTED IN 3 MINUTES

Frank R. Smith Found Guilty of Holding Up, Singleton.

It took a jury about three minutes this morning to reach a verdict of guilty in the robbery against Frank R. Smith, tried before Superior Judge Frank B. Ogden for highway robbery. They reported the verdict a few minutes after 10 o'clock and the court set next Monday morning as the time for sentencing the prisoner.

Smith was one of the quartet of thugs who snatched and robbed Secretary Charles H. Singleton of the Claremont Country Club one night last March and afterwards shot Policeman Leonhardt in making their escape. He was arrested about half an hour after the shooting and had in his possession a diamond ring and a diamond ring that had been taken away from Singleton. The other three robbers escaped and Smith has never given any information that would lead the police to their apprehension.

The three denied all connection with the robbery and the shooting of Policeman Leonhardt and was convicted on the former charge entirely upon circumstantial evidence. The case against him was so strong, however, as to leave no doubt in the minds of the jurors for doubt as to his guilt.

Judge Ogden will sentence Smith next Monday morning.

COMMISSION UPHELD BY SUPREME COURT

OAKLAND CITY, June 8.—The five commissioners of this city recently elected under the commission form of government are entitled to take office, according to the decision today of the supreme court of Oklahoma. The commission recently brought habeas corpus proceedings and the case was appealed by the former mayor and councilmen, who would not give up their offices.

TREASURER TO PROVIDE FOR EMERGENCY

County Employees Need Not Worry About Deficit in Salary Fund.

Local Banks to Be Asked to Take Up Interest Bearing Treasury Slips.

Attaches of the county government will suffer no inconvenience in the matter of salaries on account of the law passed by the last legislature, which prevents the county treasurer from transferring money from the general fund to the salary fund to make up deficits in the latter. This announcement was made today at the office of County Treasurer Kelly.

There is always a deficit in the salary fund. Hereafter the county treasurer has had power to meet this deficit by drawing on the general fund, but now that the amendment to section 405 of the political code has taken the power away from him it will be necessary for the Board of Supervisors to make a special tax levy to get the money. This will not be done until the first Monday in September, however, and in order to meet the emergency in the interim County Treasurer Kelly will arrange with the local banks to take up the registered treasury slips which he issues for the payment of salaries. The warrants drawn by the county auditor.

DEPOSIT IN BANKS. The county carries on deposit in the banks never less than $1,000,000, which is the best guarantee of redemption, but aside from this the banks will be glad to accept the registered treasury slips because they bear interest at the rate of five per cent a year and in themselves are just as good an investment as gold bonds. About four years ago there was a big deficit in all the county funds and the treasurer was forced to register all claims in the same manner as it is now proposed for salaries, and there was no inconvenience experienced by anybody.

According to the new law the auditor will estimate the amount necessary to be raised by the special tax levy, which is approximately $1,000,000, and using this estimate as his basis County Treasurer Kelly will continue the regular payment of salaries in the manner that has been indicated. Then, when the special tax levy is made, he will take up with the salary fund thus made available the registered treasury slips that are outstanding with the banks.

UP TO THE SUPERVISORS.

Deputy District Attorney Leon A. Clark has the legal end of the special tax levy in charge and will present the matter to the Board of Supervisors when that body asks for advice on the subject. It remains for the supervisors to authorize the issuance of the registered slips by the county auditor and this authority will be created in time to prevent any confusion or inconvenience to county officials and employees when their next salary day arrives.

ALAMEDA POETS ANNOYED HUSBY

Mrs. Jessie Thomas Declares Spouse Manufactured Affinities.

No matter what Jessie Thomas did to keep her husband from falling out with her, according to her complaint for divorce from George J. Thomas, filed last evening in the superior court, he was always finding fault with her. Being of an extremely jealous disposition, the wife says, she was constantly being accused of having affairs with other men, and that it was most brutal and unkind of her husband to accuse her in this regard.

The marital life of the Thomases has been one continual round of discord, Mrs. Thomas says, the husband even going to the extreme of publicly declaring that his wife was incompetent and irresponsible. He has even paid the serving maid a dollar more a month to go home as soon as he entered the house so that she would not hear the quarrels with his wife. On one occasion Mrs. Thomas set up, "Thomas declared that he would take her to the doctor and that 'before long' he would have her in the bug-house, where she belonged." He also called her a "scullion and a wizen" and accused her of "sponging on him," she says. There were also times when he threatened to "pound on him," she says. There were also times when he threatened to "pound on him," she says.

According to Mrs. Thomas her husband was worth more than $10,000 in stocks and property and receives therefrom an income of not less than $250 a month. She declares that all the property is community property and asks for one-half of it together with alimony.

GARY MAKES OLD CARNEGIE COMPANY AN OCTOPUS Declares Former Management Would Have Driven All U. S. Competition Out of Business

WASHINGTON, June 8.—Judge E. H. Gary of the United States Steel Corporation expected to conclude today his testimony before the Senate committee investigating the steel industry. He asked the committee for an opportunity to tell the exact percentage of the steel business of the country which the corporation controlled and how that percentage has been reduced since that time.

Gary also desired to tell the committee what companies, taken over when the corporation was formed, were competitors of each other and what companies were not.

There were present before the committee today waiting to testify Norman B. Beam, Percival Roberts Jr. and James G. Gayley of the steel corporation directorate.

COMPETING COMPANIES. When the United States Steel Corporation was formed in 1901, said Judge Gary, the companies actually in competition were the Carnegie Steel Company, a subsidiary of the Federal Steel Company, the American Steel and Wire Company, the National Tube Company, the American Tin Plate Company, the American Sheet Steel Company, the American Bridge Company and the Carnegie Steel Company.

Gary said that the Carnegie Steel Company was not in competition with each other, nor with the company first named.

The principal competition was between the Carnegie Steel Company and the Carnegie Steel Company, said Gary, "in the sense that they were making principally rails. But freight rates from Pittsburgh to Chicago were so large, nearly $3 per ton, that markets were fairly well defined."

OUTSIDE MARKET.

"It is a fact, though, that the Carnegie Steel Company outside its natural market. Only I remember that the Carnegie sold rails at $16 when the Illinois company was considering going into the hands of receivers and when it did actually come near doing that."

"I believe that if unrestricted and unrestrained destructive competition had continued the Illinois Steel Company would have been driven out of business. I am inclined to believe that if the former management had continued in control, the Carnegie Steel Company would have driven entirely out of business every steel company doing business in the United States. That is the opinion of many people who know the facts."

Gary denied any knowledge of any agreement in the steel industry whereby business territory was apportioned and violators of the agreement punished. The subordinate companies of the steel corporation might have done things which the parent company disapproved, but that such matters always were corrected.

"Our policy," he said, "has been publicity. We have endeavored from the beginning to publish all the facts and figures relating to our business. We believe that enforced publicity of corporations is the most efficient thing that has been suggested to maintain fair conduct of business."

REPUBLICANS WILL HAVE UNITED FRONT

Insurgents Will Stand With the Regulars at the Polls in 1912.

(From the San Francisco Call June 8.) (BY IRA E. BENNETT.)

WASHINGTON, June 7.—That the Republican party will present a united front at the polls in 1912, when the presidential election is to be held, was made certain today when the official announcement was made that the insurgent wing of the party had divided and that Senator Cummins of Iowa, Dixon of Montana, Borah of Idaho, and William H. Taft of Kansas, who would work for the renomination of William Howard Taft. The announcement of these five insurgents that they are for Taft's renomination presages the end of the insurgent movement so far as Taft is concerned.

Senator La Follette of Wisconsin had intended to announce his candidacy for the Republican nomination for president, but it is now believed that he will withhold his endorsement. He had completed preparations for capturing the delegates from California to the convention, but all his work has gone for nothing.

CUMMINS OPPOSES FACTIONS. The defection of Senator Cummins, close friend of La Follette, was the straw that led the others to follow. It has been known that Senator Cummins, the colleague of Cummins from Iowa, would support President Taft and in his statement Cummins said that he would be for the renomination of the present chief executive because he wished to keep the forces of the party in Iowa united.

Had Cummins been for La Follette, the campaign was for Taft. It would have meant that the insurgent fight would have ended in Iowa, with the chances favoring a Democratic victory. Cummins, moreover, did not believe that La Follette could succeed in making a dent in the convention and that even though he could secure the nomination he could not be elected.

It was the general belief of the insurgents who came out for Taft today that the business interests of the country including manufacturers, bankers and employers, would vote for the Democratic candidate in preference to La Follette.

For a considerable time it was a toss-up whether the nominee of the insurgent branch of the Republican party, Senator Cummins of Iowa, would support President Taft and in his statement Cummins said that he would be for the renomination of the present chief executive because he wished to keep the forces of the party in Iowa united.

The World's Greater Cities.

The census of the city of London, the British metropolis, which was taken a few weeks ago, shows that it has a population of 7,252,000 and that it holds the record of the world's largest city in that respect. Under the British system of enumerating population, the census is taken before midnight of the twenty-four hours of the canvass. There are therefore few opportunities for error.

London, therefore, retains the lead as the most populous city on the earth. New York approaches nearest to it of all the great cities of the world with its population of 4,766,000 as the result of the census of 1910. Berlin, the German capital, comes third, with the population of 3,500,000 as the result of the recent annexation of populous suburbs containing 900,000 inhabitants. Paris held the third position in the roster until the recent census when the German capital, through the annexation of its populous suburbs, forged ahead. The only hope that the French capital has to recover lost ground is to annex its suburbs which contain from 400,000 to 500,000 population, and if annexed will place it to the forefront again as the third city in the world in the matter of population. Unless the French capital annexes these suburbs she will, of course, be compelled to surrender supremacy to the German capital and thus lower her own pride. Berlin became the third city in the world in the matter of population through the simple act of the Diet annexing a territory embracing a population of 900,000. As a commercial metropolis New York, while second only in population, holds the premier position as to commerce. It passed London, in fact, as a seaport in 1908. There are other features in its municipal existence which give it a rational claim over London. For example as a port, New York's commerce exceeded that of London in 1908. Its bank transactions exceed those of London 30 per cent. Its street car and other vehicular street service exceeded that of the British metropolis by 30 per cent and the number of passengers carried over its public thoroughfares over 40 per cent. These latter facts are produced, however, by the differences in local economics, for a Londoner will avoid a street car fare where a New Yorker would not hesitate to incur the expense. The difference between the two cities in this respect is, therefore, due to the indifference of the one to the cost of street transportation and the close economies of the other in its conservation.

In reviewing the census returns of the population of the great cities of the world, the St. Louis Globe-Democrat makes a mistake in saying that there are only ten cities in the world with a population exceeding one million population, three of which are in the United States, two in Russia and one each in England, France, Germany, Austria and Japan. It overlooks the fact, however, that China's capital—Peking—has a population of over 2,000,000, and that there are other cities, also, which have also a population in excess of a million. For example, the city of Manchester, England, has undoubtedly a population of over a million counting the borough of Salford, which is separated from the city proper only by the narrow stream of the river Irwell, for the two contained in the census of 1900 a joint population of over 900,000, and while they are technically politically separated today their joint population undoubtedly exceeds a million inhabitants. They must be considered, however, conjointly as one city, for they are, to all intents and purposes, united in everything save in their political relations.

Within the next twenty years (possibly within the next decade) Oakland may be included among the world's cities having a million population. Who knows?

A Denver newspaper description of William A. Gates, a typical frontier gambler of the kind Bret Harte immortalized, who died recently in that city, would fit exactly the physical appearance and mental and social characteristics of Billy Briggs, who in the sixties and the seventies was at the head of the fraternity of gamblers in San Francisco. Gates is described as "a silent man always, yet of a pleasing personality. He was of distinguished appearance. Nearly six feet in height, of military carriage and forceful manner, he attracted much attention always. Gates is said to have been an exponent of the square deal." Those who were acquainted with Billy Briggs will recognize how closely Gates resembled him. Gates is said to have left considerable money which he willed to various orphan asylums and a Masonic lodge in New York City and to the old ladies' home and an Elks' lodge in Denver. Here again the resemblance between Gates and Briggs is remarkably striking, for the latter had the reputation of being one of the most charitable men living, never turning a deaf ear to an appeal for aid, but always avoiding notoriety in the giving.

The reported discovery of a large body of niter eighteen miles from Gerlach in Washoe county, Nevada, adds a new and valuable element to the list of the mineral resources of the sage brush State. The niter deposit recently discovered is represented to be the largest in North America and second only in value and extent to the famous niter field of Chile.

On Friday, Sacramento will follow Oakland's recent example by holding an election to authorize a large bond issue for the purchase of school grounds and the erection of four large, new school buildings of a permanent character and fireproof. Sacramento has been driven like Oakland to resort to this expedient of raising money for the purposes named by the rapid growth of population and the over-crowding of its present school houses. Growing communities must keep abreast of the times in providing adequate educational facilities and housing their children in modern school buildings, regardless of what these may cost. But no better investment can be made by any community than that which provides for the best type of school houses and ample school grounds. The benefits accruing from an adequate and superior public school system are represented in increased realty values which invariably follow the carrying out of such public school improvements as Oakland has provided for and which Sacramento is planning to erect.

The present Legislature of Ohio is apparently one of the most remarkable that any other State in the union ever possessed. It has been smirched all over with bribery exposures, but it capped the climax the other day by rushing a bill through both houses providing for the payment of next year's salaries to members this year. The shameful attempt to collect a salary neither due nor earned was, however, promptly blocked by the Governor's veto.

The supervisors of Tulare county have appropriated $10,000 for the testing of the dairy herds in the county for tuberculosis. These herds comprise 50,000 head. The tests are to be made co-operatively by State, Federal and County veterinary inspectors. It is the step taken in the west for concerted action on the part of the State, Federal and County governments to eradicate tuberculosis in cattle and the preservation of the public health. The crusade will doubtless be extended throughout the State.

WHICH WILL GET THE JOB?

Uncertainty of Peace in Mexico.

While Francisco I. Madero has been received at the city of Mexico with a great display of popular enthusiasm, the situation in the southern republic at present gives no assurance of permanent peace. Diaz has left the country, it is true, but his partisans remain and, according to recent reports, they are actively plotting the early overthrow of the new administration and the seizure of the reins of government by themselves. Evidences are multiplying that no genuine friendship has been formed between the victorious revolutionists and the federal troops. Madero is reported to be apprehensive, as he well may be, of the loyalty of the federal military leaders. For example, the original program to send the 1300 federal troops from Chihuahua to the Pacific Coast to suppress the rebellion in Lower California has been cancelled, Madero suspecting that they would join the revolutionists instead of co-operating to suppress them.

Evidently the United States government does not cherish a feeling of security that peace in Mexico is assured, for while the army mobilized on the Mexican frontier three months ago is being gradually withdrawn by order of the President, the units of the various divisions are being so distributed that it will be an easy matter to again mobilize them on the frontier in the event of a revival of trouble in the southern republic. Even the warships which assembled at Guantanamo and San Diego are to remain indefinitely at those stations.

It remains to be proved whether President de la Barra will succeed in harmonizing the various factions which developed throughout the country at the outbreak of the recent insurrection. These operated independently in different parts of the republic. Their leaders did not recognize any common source of authority. They had but one purpose in common—the overthrow of Diaz. That having been accomplished and the Madero faction having secured control of the government, De la Barra is now burdened with the grave task of placating and uniting the different revolutionary elements. When he officially received Madero on his entry to the capital city, De la Barra admitted the gravity of the situation and the magnitude of the work before him when he declared that while "a great deal has been done, there is much ahead of us." The work ahead of De la Barra and Madero is, in fact, more serious and difficult than that which they have accomplished.

For the benefit of non-residents who are interested in learning facts bearing on Oakland's progress and prosperity, it is worth while noting that there is nearly $4,000,000 worth of new construction in actual course of development inside the central business district of the city.

BLESSING OF HOT WEATHER

From the seat of prophecy, which is the weather bureau, comes the evasive prediction that there is only "a possibility of a slight change in temperature."

This, being interpreted, is merely a naive way the weather man has of announcing that summer is here. In this, the weather man is probably correct—summer does seem to be present; a cursory glance at the thermometer is convincing that this is the beginning of the season of hot weather.

Hot weather brings blessings. It acts to force everybody into the open air, which is a blessing. When it becomes impossible for them to stay indoors, they go outside, there to get acquainted with sunshine, blue sky and breezes. And all of these things are good for humanity.

Further, hot weather drives folks to water, makes them bathe frequently, and sponges their faces, and induces them to substitute water for other liquids not so refreshing or nourishing.

Again, a rising temperature intensifies the call of the country and the seashore, lifts men and women out of the rut of daily existence, and teaches them the benefit of getting away from their usual surroundings.

All of which is very good for the individual, and very good for the community.

for the blessings which hot weather brings to individuals must have a far-reaching general influence.

In living in the open air, getting acquainted with nature and doing things, the person of small means has the advantage.

Why? Because the man with money is given mainly to pleasure-seeking, which in the long run is not very profitable. He does not appreciate nature; he does not need, by reason of circumstances, to cultivate the soil and that sort of thing; and when he goes to the seashore, it is all so familiar to him!

When a man or woman gets the correct aspect of the situation as it is affected by hot weather, he or she will look for the blessings and make the most of them. And by so doing he or she will soon find out that there is no cause for complaint. —Philadelphia Times.

Things in General

The tunnel under the Elbe at Hamburg is the subject of an illustrated article in the "Freundenblatt," which speaks of it as a "gigantic work of German mechanics" and "a unique masterpiece of engineering which the whole world has watched with interest." The tunnel is for the use of foot passengers and for teams. "Now, after four years of labor, the time is at hand, when one may go 'dryshod' from shore to shore, without bridge or ship," says the article. The clipping, which was sent to the Tribune, has written on the margin: "These people have evidently never heard of New York's tubes and tunnels."

A Vienna court has sentenced a woman, Leopoldine Futschel, to three months' imprisonment for abusing Empress Maria Theresa, who died in 1780. Frau Futschel, who had been ordered by the police court to be expelled from Vienna for some offense, heard from a fellow-prisoner in her cell that the law providing for expulsion from a town was passed in Maria Theresa's reign. "She then relieved her feelings," says a London Standard correspondent, "by violent abuse of the great empress, not knowing nor caring that under the Austrian law the ancestors of the emperor are protected from unduly unfavorable criticism, written or spoken, for 200 years back."

"There's more than one way to skin a cat," the boys say. And there's more than one way to run a Sunday baseball game in New York state and make money at it without running foul of the law. The Utica Observer tells of a recent instance. At Dolgeville one Sunday recently a red-hot ball game was played by amateur teams. Of course, no admission was charged, but the players, between turns at batting, passed and sold sticks of chewing gum worth a cent apiece at 25 cents each. Nobody was compelled to buy, but in a crowd like that it was wise to do so, to say the least.

THEY GROW HAIR

Certain Ingredients if Properly Combined Stimulate the Human Hair Growth.

Borax is one of the most effective hair destroyers ever discovered. Beta-naphthol is a most powerful, yet absolute, safe germicide and antiseptic, which prevents development of germ matter and creates a clean, healthy condition.

Blood-purifier, although not a coloring matter or dye, is an ingredient well established for its power to restore natural color to human hair.

Borax, because of its well-defined softening and cleansing properties, is most useful in the treatment of scalp and hair diseases. Glycerine acts as a stimulant to the hair bulbs, and has a soothing, healing and nourishing influence. Alcohol is indispensable in medicine because of its antiseptic, stimulating and preservative qualities.

Recall "93" Hair Tonic is chiefly composed of these ingredients, which are compounded in a peculiar form, and we believe it is the most effective remedy known to medical science for scalp and hair troubles generally. We personally guarantee it to eradicate dandruff and scalp irritations and to grow hair, even though the scalp in spots is bare of hair, providing, of course, there is life and vitality remaining in the hair roots.

We want every one troubled with scalp disease, dandruff or loss of hair to try Recall "93" Hair Tonic. If it does not remove dandruff and promote a growth of hair to the satisfaction of the user, we will without question or quibble return every cent paid us for it. This guarantee is printed on every package. It has effected most satisfactory results in 93 out of 100 cases where put to a practical test.

Recall "93" Hair Tonic is entirely unlike and in every particular different from anything else we know of for the purpose for which it is recommended. We urge you to try it at our entire risk. Certainly, we could offer no better guarantee. Two sizes, 50 cents and $1. The Owl Drug Co., Inc., Tenth and Washington, Thirteenth and Broadway, Sixteenth and San Pablo.

$15,000 WORTH OF AUTO TIRES ARRIVE LOCAL MOTOR CLUB OPENS DANCE SERIES

The $15,000 shipment of Firestone Tires which has just been delivered to Holmes & Olson, local distributors. A Buick truck (Charles Kane driving) was employed to land the shipment safely in Oakland.

Pacific Coast Manager of Kelly-Springfield Rubber Company Returns From Tour of the East

By J. A. HOULIHAN.

The largest single shipment of automobile tires ever made to a tire house in this city was received on Saturday last by Holmes & Olson, distributors, locally, for the well-known Firestone tires. Close to $15,000 worth of the Firestone tires were loaded on a Buick automobile truck upon the arrival of a two-carload consignment of tires to the San Francisco branch of the Kelly-Springfield Rubber Company. The tires were loaded on the truck, after which the driver started for the bay rather than the city, representing a small fortune, was started up Broadway as far as Fifteenth street, and from there a trip continued on to the new salesrooms of Holmes & Olson, at Twelfth and Harrison streets.

It is but a few years back when the sale of this volume of tires in a year's time was considered as representing a splendid showing.

MOTOR CLUB DANCE TONIGHT.
Tonight the Oakland Motor Club inaugurates a series of weekly dances at the San Leandro Club house, for members and friends. The success of the first ladies' night, which was held on May 31, led to immediate decision on the part of the board of governors to hold informal dances every Thursday night.

BUT ONE NUMBER REQUIRED.

For some time past motorists have been under the impression that a new law had gone into effect requiring the use of a license number on the front of the automobile similar to the one in use on the rear. As a matter of information to owners of automobiles it might be well to set every one right on this point. At the last session of the legislature a bill was passed requiring the use of a number in the front of a car. It reached the Governor and not being signed by him has not as yet become a law. But one number—in the rear—is the present requirement.

TIRE MANAGER RETURNS.

C. W. Flint, Pacific coast manager of the Kelly-Springfield Rubber Company, is back from an extended tour of the west, the principal object of which was a visit to the Kelly tire plant. Like many other factory turning out necessities and necessities for the automobile, additions to the factory floor space, due to a tremendous increase in business in the past year, has resulted in the completion of new plants which will triple the output of Kelly-Springfield tires and incidentally enable the various branches of this concern to keep up with orders. Flint has made the Kelly-Springfield name a household word on the Pacific coast in the short time he has been connected with the company.

SPLITDORF OPENS FOREIGN PLANT.

Owing to the fact that his European duties have become of such a magnitude that the duty levied upon American magnets has become quite an item, together with the shipping rates, C. F. Splitdorf, the famous magnet maker, has decided to open a branch factory in Paris and meet the foreigners on their own ground. The large and increasing number of Splitdorf magnets exported to England and France in the last three years has made this step necessary. The New York factory of the C. F. Splitdorf Company occupies four buildings with a floor space of 130,000 square feet and gives employment to 1000 skilled electrical workers.

RECORD FOR DIAMOND TIRES.

C. B. Hanner of Fresno, Cal., is most enthusiastic over the splendid record he has made with his Diamond tires and Diamond tires. Although he has toured over the hardest roads in the state, including crossing the P. loco Pass twelve times, besides other trips to Pine Ridge and Squaw Valley, his four Diamond tires have delivered a mileage of 6000, 7600, 10,000 and 12,800 miles. Naturally, Hanner is a most ardent supporter and booster for Diamond tires.

GOUGH THEATERS ARE BRANDED 'LOWERING'

The Russell Sage Foundation Scores Moral Tone of the Playhouses.

NEW YORK, June 8.—A severe arraignment of the moral and intellectual tone of the theaters in this city is presented in a report issued under the auspices of the Russell Sage Foundation. The vaudeville theater and burlesque shows come in for especially harsh criticism. Compared to these shows, the regular theaters are visited by a relatively small number of patrons.

The total number of theaters in Greater New York is given as 407. Those in Manhattan number 275, of which only thirty are rated as "first-class houses." The average weekly attendance at the 275 theaters is 1,760,000, only 160,000 of which represent visitors at the first-class houses. A total of nearly $750,000 is spent weekly on theaters in this city.

RATED "DEMORALIZING."
Of the burlesque houses, five-sixths are rated as "demoralizing" and one-sixth as "lowering." Of the vaudeville houses three-fourths are not "objectionable," one-fifth are "lowering," and only five per cent are "not positive values."

The deductions from these data are in part as follows:
"The most striking character of vaudeville is simple stupidity. The burlesque show is the most undesirable type of entertainment it rarely sinks to the level of immorality or suggestiveness attained by occasional plays at high-priced theaters."
The vaudeville mentality of the "out-of-town" and hotel theater is a standard above which the theatrical manager cannot pass without endangering his hold upon this sort of patronage. In a word, the high-priced theater is not offering to the well-to-do residents of New York what that clientele has a right to demand."

LAWYER REFUTES SLADE CHARGES 'ORDERED SENT TO PRISON'

Says That Complaint Against Derbys Is Untrue and Unfounded.

EDITOR TRIBUNE: The charges made in the complaint of S. E. Slade Company against Osece E. and Augustus B. Derby, referred to in this morning's papers, are utterly untrue and unfounded. The Derbys have for years been engaged in business in Oakland and no more reputable, or upright men can be found. The truth of this matter is simply this: In January, 1909, a gift was made by these gentlemen to their wives of certain stock. At the time the firm of E. M. Derby & Co. was actively engaged in the lumber business and wholly solvent, and the thought of defrauding the creditors of that company by such gift never remotely entered the Derbys' minds. The Derbys themselves individually, independent of their interests in the corporation and also independent of the stock so given, were without a debt and were worth over $30,000. Business was good and the year 1909 promised to be exceptionally prosperous. This condition, however, changed "over night" in the following month of May by the report of the tariff committee in Congress. Lumber dropped in price to such an extent that no lumberman could state a business figure.

In view of the probable continuation of this status for many months to come and in view also of the desire to retire from the lumber business, a sale was made by the E. M. Derby Company to the Logan Lumber Company of the lumber on hand and the affairs of the corporation placed in liquidation. Among its assets were many valuable parcels of land in Oakland, Alameda and Berkeley, besides personal property and equipment. Some of this has been sold and some is still on hand. Payments in sums aggregating over $35,000 have been made to creditors and with the property still subject to sale and applicable to its obligations, it is expected that all indebtedness will be wiped out. The Slade claim is on stockholders' liability only. The depositions of the Derbys under oath have been given and all the facts here stated fully brought out, and it is simple justice to these gentlemen that a refutation be made of the grossly untrue charges contained in the complaint in question. OLIVER ELLSWORTH.

YOUR NEIGHBOR'S EXPERIENCE.
Edward von E. of Lake Forest, Ill., writes: "I had a very serious case of kidney trouble and I suffered with backaches and dizzy headaches. I had specks floating before my eyes and I felt tired and miserable. I saw Foley's Kidney Pills advertised and got a bottle and took them according to directions and results showed almost at once. The pain and dizzy headaches left me, my eyesight became clear and today I can say I am cured. I wish to thank Dr. J. C. Foley." Write to Dr. J. C. Foley, 1000 Washington St., Washington, D. C.

CAPTAIN IN ARMY ORDERED SENT TO PRISON

Sensational Case in Russia Involving Prince's Property Comes to End.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 8.—The sensational trial of the twelve men, including two noblemen, a priest and four lawyers, charged with conspiring to secure the fortune of the late Prince Bohdan Ogninsky was ended today with the sentencing of the seven defendants found guilty.

Staff Captain Dmitri Von Liarlarski was condemned to two years' imprisonment and his accomplices were deprived of their civil rights. The case attracted wide attention, as the two chief accused were Von Liarlarski and his stepfather, Colonel Vladimir Von Liarlarski, who belongs to a noble family and was, until his arrest, master of the soldiers at the imperial court. The Ogninsky family is one of the oldest of the Lithuanian nobility and possessed estates in Poland, Galicia and Lithuania. Its last representative, Prince Bohdan, died childless and without having fulfilled his avowed promise of adopting as his heir Count Joseph Zukalski.

LABORER ATTACKED BY TWO BROTHERS IS DYING

BLACK DIAMOND, June 8.—With seven ugly gashes on his person as the result of an attack made upon him by two brothers, Elan Gonzalez, a section hand in the employ of the Santa Fe Railroad Company, lies at the point of death at the county hospital. Martin and Demetrio Falcon, the brothers accused of the assault, are being held in the county jail pending the result of their victim's wounds, and will be charged with murder should death result. Deputy Sheriff William Veale investigated the case and learned that Gonzalez was attacked by the two brothers after a wordy battle had occurred between the three men. The Falcon brothers accused Gonzalez of having made insulting remarks regarding the wife of Demetrio.

ALUMNAE HOSTS TO GRADUATES

Former Richmond High School Students Hold Big Reception.

RICHMOND, June 8.—The alumnae of the Richmond Union High school last night entertained the members of the graduating class at a reception given in the high school building, which was attractively decorated for the occasion. Dancing to the accompaniment of the park orchestra, was indulged in in the Assembly Hall, which was worked out in color scheme of white and gold, the class colors, against a background of green. The library, which was used as a serving room and the music room, transformed into a reception room, were also examples of pleasing decoration.

Carroll Marshall, an alumnus of the class of 1908, acted as floor manager for the dance, and in the neighborhood of 300 were present at the affair.

SETTLES $75,000,000
SUIT FOR $200,000

NEW YORK, June 8.—The settlement aggregating $75,000,000, by a cash payment of $200,000 in real money, is proposed in a compromise submitted to the United States court here by the receivers of the Third Avenue, Metropolitan and New York Railway Companies. The settlement appears to have the approval of the public service commission, one of the commissioners being quoted as follows:

"While it sounds rather strange to think of settling so large a claim for so much money, in money, it may prove to be the best thing that can be done. The millions are on paper and the $200,000 is probably cash."

JOHNSON TURNS DOWN
GRAND JURY REQUEST

SACRAMENTO, June 8.—Governor Johnson is not disposed to grant the request of the Los Angeles grand jury to include in his call for a special session of the legislature special action on the matter of abolition of railroad grade crossings to lessen the number of accidents.

His hope was to confine the special session to the two propositions absolutely necessary to be legislated upon: the state revenues and reapportionment. "Unless I believe other matters to be of extraordinary importance I shall adhere to this view. The matter, however, has not been definitely determined."

RICHMOND CHURCH TO HAVE NEW SITE

Members of Christian Congregation Consider Buying Property.

RICHMOND, June 8.—Representatives of the Christian Church congregation have been actively employed during the week in looking into the matter of purchasing a new site for the church building at Eleventh and Bissell streets. The matter was considered at the Sunday morning service of the congregation and the present consideration by the church representatives is the result.

An option has been taken by J. P. Philpott and J. L. Bedwell on the lot at the above mentioned corner, and it is contended that that location would be a much better one than that at present possessed by the church, at Sixth and Bissell. If the new lot is purchased the church building now used will be removed to the new location and used until money can be raised for a new building.

The amalgamation includes the Girl Scouts, which Miss Lester-Lane of Des Moines organized last year, the Girl Guides, which the Rev. David Perry organized in Spokane a few months ago, and the Camp Fire Girls, organized in this city recently.

The new title, "Pioneers," was chosen because it was urged of the pioneer activities which the new organization is intended to foster among American girls.

COUPLE CHARGED WITH SLAYING 2

The Wife and Husband of Dead Accuse of Administering Poison.

BALTIMORE, Md., June 8. — Charged with murdering Morris Cohen and Sarah Cohen by administering poison to them in their food Ida Cohen, wife of the dead man, and another, Morris Cohen, husband of the dead woman, are under arrest here today.

The motive for the alleged crimes is thought by the detectives to have been the desire of the couple under arrest to get rid of their wife and husband in order that the attachment of the living Morris Cohen and Ida might be most favorably fostered.

An analysis of the viscera of the deceased couple, whose deaths occurred about three weeks apart last month, disclosed traces of poison, according to the police.

The accused pair, who have been under police surveillance for a week, declined to make any statement when arrested. Hereafter they have maintained that the death of their respective spouses was due to ptomaine poisoning.

The case comes up before Superior Judge R. H. Lattimer.

AROUND THE WORLD ON AN OCEAN LINER

HAMBURG-AMERICAN LINE

San Francisco, Cal., to Japan, Australia, etc.

Joe Fanton and his "Awakening Athletes" are presenting a very distinct novelty at the Bell theater this week. It is a gymnastic novelty, but in no sense to be compared with the average act of this character that one generally witnesses in a vaudeville performance. Theirs is of the most thrilling type, and in its nature, a hazardous one indeed.

Their exploits on the Roman rings far surpass anything seen at this house before. The grace of execution, the nerve-racking call of their feats, and the apparent ease with which it all seems to be accomplished, form at once an exhibition that is a pleasure to witness.

"Just for a Test" is a linguistic diversionment that the clever couple, Harry Knox and Mercedes Alvin, are delighting the big audiences of the week with. Analyze their patter and song and one discovers nothing that would seem to account for the hit the pair are making, but considering the combination of class and the picturesque and striking beauty of Miss Alvin and the result seems to be irresistible.

CLEVER ARTISTS.

A couple of very clever artists of the colored type make merry in a mélange of small talk, good coon shouting and capital dancing.

"When Fuddy Realizes," by Abrams and Johns, may teach a moral, but in the teaching it gives the spectators a chance to laugh long and loud. A husband, fond of the gray and white way and the wiles of the chorus girls, is brought to the realization that his wife is home sport" herself, when she plans to meet him in an apparently intoxicated condition after a time with the boys of his acquaintance. The result is a reformed husband, and the wife is happy that her little ruse worked so admirably.

MILK ORDINANCE IS A SUCCESS IN BERKELEY

The First Month of New Law Works Benefit to the Supply.

FEW DEFICIENCIES ARE FOUND IN THE DAIRIES

Proper Screening Declared to Be Lacking in Some Cases.

BERKELEY, June 8.—The first month's work under the new milk ordinance has been a success, and the score card system has proved to be up to the claims made for it, according to the initial report made to Mayor Houghland by Dr. Chester L. Roadhouse, milk inspector.

The report follows:

Replying to your request, I herewith submit my report on work done to date under the new milk ordinance.

Since May 2 fourteen milk plants located within the city limits of Berkeley have been inspected, also five milk plants located within the city of Oakland which are distributing milk in Berkeley, and seventeen dairies located in and around Berkeley and which are selling milk in Berkeley.

The most important defect found in the milk plants within the city and, in fact, at all other places where milk is handled, was the general lack of proper screening of milk rooms to keep the flies out of the milk. Score cards have been prepared for all places inspected, and written recommendations left with the owners to correct defective construction of buildings and to improve the drainage, cleanliness, equipment and dairy methods.

FOURTEEN BIG DAIRIES.

There are about fourteen large dairies supplying milk to Berkeley, which are located in Contra Costa, Alameda and Santa Clara counties, and which are yet to be inspected. There are also a few small dairies within the city limits of Berkeley that have not yet been found. The dairies in the city have been given written recommendations with the score for the dairy at the time of inspection, and letters are sent to the dairy owners later by the health officer reiterating the recommendations made by the milk inspector and emphasizing the necessity for making the changes and improving the score by the time of the next inspection.

The milk dealers have accepted the recommendations without complaint, with the exception of two; but it is safe to say that some of the dairymen outside the city will not get the results desired within ninety days, as provided by the ordinance.

LESS OPPOSITION.

The score card ordinance which we are using in Berkeley is creating less opposition than the compulsory milk ordinance which was in effect here, but it remains to be seen whether the results obtained will prove as satisfactory. My impression is that our score card ordinance, for the city of Berkeley, is a better one than the one in use in other cities. It places all responsibility upon the milkman himself, and excludes his product from the city unless it is below sixty. In adopting the use of the score card recommended by the United States Department of Agriculture, our standards cannot be justly criticized. The printing of score cards, labels, stationery, etc., has been completed. The milk ordinance, including suggestions to dairymen, is in the hands of the printer to be printed in pamphlet form. The bulletin board for the posting of reports and all apparatus for the chemical analysis of milk are ordered, so that the bureau will soon be in good working order.

MATRIMONIAL BAIT LURES HER TO CELL

BERKELEY, June 8.—Special Officer J. Royd, post-policeman, former expressman and village wif, exchanged wits with Marie O'Brien in the tolls for drunkenness.

When the woman declared she would go with him if he would marry her and take her to the theater, Royd rose to the occasion, and made the promise which she suggested. Although she came near stabbing another policeman with a hatpin on a journey to the county jail recently, and gave him a struggle at all stages of the trip, the county jailer, Royd yesterday until the doors of the county jail again loomed up before her.

Then Maggie rebelled. By making another promise that the marriage license would be obtained inside the office, she lured his charge through the iron gate. She is still held by bonds that are metal rather than matrimonial.

COURT EXONERATES POOLROOM OWNER

ALAMEDA, June 8.—The case against George James, proprietor of a pool room at Lincoln avenue and Willow street, for driving a person was dismissed this morning by Judge Tappan.

TWO-TON BELL AND HIGH TOWER MOVED TOGETHER

Tower with heavy bell which was moved on rollers.

—Shaw, Photo.

BERKELEY, June 8.—The moving on rollers of a tower 70 feet high, made top-heavy by a fine bell weighing approximately two tons, across the city hall park, is an undertaking which has just been successfully completed.

It was at first believed to be impossible to transfer the high tower without removing the bell, but finally the expert work of the city engineers, under the supervision of the city engineer, J. J. Jassup, of placing strong wooden props against the corners of the tower at an angle of thirty degrees, secured the structure upon a broad platform constructed at the base of the tall structure.

After the rollers had been laid under the tower by the housemover and the elongated framework, with its heavy traction by employees at the city hall, the tower was moved across the park, its progress was watched with much trepidation by employees at the city hall who momentarily feared that the great tower would fall against the building. Nothing but the kind ingenuity and agency work as quickly as the chief reaches a blaze. Three firemen will be stationed at the new house.

TO BEGIN WORK SOON ON WOMEN'S HALL

The campaign for the women's building has been carried on for several years by the regents.

BOY HIT BY TRAIN ESCAPES WITH BRUISES

He was riding a bicycle across the track, impatient of impending danger, when the train hit him. The boy resides at 2321 Grove street.

BERKELEY PLAY SPOTS INCREASE

New Parks Being Developed Rapidly in Different Parts of College City.

BERKELEY, June 8.—Berkeley's playground system is rapidly developing. People's park, the largest of the city hall children's park, has been shipped from the east and will be received here within two weeks. The sum of $300 will be spent for additions to the equipment and in setting it up. A field house, in connection with the city hall playground, is soon to be built.

A baseball diamond has recently been laid out at San Pablo park, the largest of west end boys, at a cost of $100. This followed the expenditure of an equal sum for trees at the west side of the park.

This pleasure spot is bounded by Ward and Russell, Mabel and Park streets, and was purchased from the estate of the late Land company in 1907 for $37,118. It consists of 12.4 acres. Trees valued at $100 were set out by the city engineer in March, 1908, under the direction of L. E. Mansell, instructor in horticulture at the University of California. Street work on most of the surrounding thoroughfares was also done at the expense of the city.

The new park at the end of Euclid avenue, leased by the city from the People's Park company, has just been acquired as rapidly as municipal finances will permit. Signs which will probably designate the site of the park, which will be erected at an early date. The site of the park has not yet been officially chosen.

EUREKA FINDS HIDDEN TREASURE

Harry Kreling Is Said to Have Financed Searching Expedition.

SAN DIEGO, June 8.—Treasure estimated in value at $100,000 was found by the crew of a Chilean cruiser off the coast of Honduras more than a generation ago has been recovered, according to reports received here, by a party of explorers aboard the steamer Eureka, now headed for this port.

The Eureka is commanded by Captain Bellas and about two weeks ago was taken from here on thirty-day charter by a party of San Franciscans. Their movements were made so cautiously that it was suspected the steamer was being chartered for a filibustering expedition. It had considerable trouble in getting clearance papers.

The expedition is said to have been financed by Harry Kreling of San Francisco. The map showing the location of the buried treasure was in the possession of a former resident of Honduras, who tried many years to attract capital to finance an expedition in quest of the sunken gold. He was unsuccessful up to the time he met Kreling. The result was the chartering of the Eureka.

HAYDEN COLLAPSES AND TRIAL IS HALTED

WEAVERVILLE, June 8.—A sudden fall in the trial of Thomas E. Hayden, who has been on trial for the last three weeks before Judge Bartlett on a charge of murder, was caused yesterday by the partial collapse of the defendant. Attorney Dan Hall, chief counsel for the defendant, explained the situation to the court and asked for a continuance until Doctor Fields could make an examination of his client.

Hayden has been falling ever since his arrest and has reached an acute condition, though the delay is not expected to be an extensive one. Hayden's extended hearing, Judge Bartlett today stated that there would be one night session for the coroner's inquest. The counsel retained for the prosecution.

MONOPY ENDS IN NICARAGUA

President Adolfo Diaz Bows to Will and Calls for Peace.

BLUEFIELD, N. C., June 3, via New Orleans, June 8.—Following the promulgation last week of the long-looked-for decision abrogating the so-called "monopoly" concession granted to foreigners on the north coast of Nicaragua by the Zelaya government, which is regarded here as the forerunner of contentment and prosperity, President Adolfo Diaz has issued a manifesto appealing to the people of Bluefield and the Atlantic coast to put aside their party dissensions and give to the administration's peace policy their loyal support.

"The most important of the concessions abolished were those which gave to the Bluefields Steamship Company a monopoly of the banana trade along the Pacific coast and to James D. Bell of Pittsburgh, Pa., a monopoly of the mineral rights in New Segovia, Jinotega and part of the district of Cape de Gracias a Dios.

YUBA CITY, June 8.—"Ghaneyra, son of Nib, a Hindoo," stating that he is "Chinaman," and that King George will take care of him all right," has gracefully turned down the invitation of his white neighbors to seek another location for his home.

HINDOO LAUGHS AT NEIGHBOR'S THREATS

Other locations on the Oliver tract, four miles southwest of Yuba City, objecting to the Hindoo as a neighbor, offered to buy his land at an advance on what he paid for it.

Charles Laughlin, at the threats made to boycott the products of his five-acre vineyard. He says that even if his vines were cut by the Hindoo, he would be able to make a living on the land, so he refused to sell for $500 for his five-acre piece. Now he sets a value of $1500 on it, but will not sell at any price.

IN OAKLAND

Every Claim Is Backed by Local Testimony.

If the reader wants stronger proof than the following statement and experience of a resident of Oakland, what can it be?

E. A. Stevens, 1811 Twenty-third avenue, Oakland, Cal., says: "For thirty years I was afflicted with kidney complaint. It came on suddenly; a sharp twinge in my back threw me from my chair to the floor. I gradually grew worse and I was sure to suffer if I lifted anything heavy. It was quite likely that my kidneys were first weakened by the jarring I received while riding over rough country roads and on trains. The kidney secretions passed too frequently. I felt weak and tired and had a poor appetite. The doctors did not seem able to help me until seeing Doctor Kidney. Pills advertised I decided to try them. In three days after I began their use, I passed a gravel stone, and as I continued taking this remedy I steadily improved. I am today free from kidney complaint, and Doctor's Kidney Pills alone have brought about this change. I am seventy-four years of age and I am much stronger and healthier than most persons of my years. I have nothing but praise for Doctor's Kidney Pills and will be glad to tell any kidney sufferer of my experience with them."

PHELAN STRUCTURE RISKS HER LIFE MAY GO ON BLOCK TO SAVE BABY

Creditors Demand Settlement On Big San Jose Building.

Mother Fatally Injured in Automobile Crash in the Windy City.

SAN JOSE, June 8.—For lack of $12,000, which is still owing to the contractors and material men, the beautiful $50,000 building recently erected at the corner of Second and San Fernando streets, in the heart of the city, may go under the hammer and be sold by the sheriff to satisfy a judgment rendered yesterday against James D. Phelan, Mary Louise Phelan and Alice Phelan Sullivan of San Francisco.

Judge J. R. Welch yesterday decided three suits for the foreclosure of mechanics' liens against the property in favor of Arthur S. Fiddle, the local contractor; J. C. F. Stagg, a paint dealer; the Pacific Manufacturing Company of Santa Clara and the Charles R. Parkinson Lumber Company of Palo Alto.

There is still $12,000 due the contractor for his work and in the decision made yesterday the Phelans must immediately pay this or suffer the sale of the building by the sheriff. The three subcontractors will get a total of $29,000 out of the $12,000.

CHICAGO, June 8.—To save the life of her baby, Mrs. Grace Arney risked her own life in an automobile smashup here last night. The mother was thrown twenty feet from the car and carried home unconscious, her skull fractured and with serious internal injuries. The baby escaped serious injury. In the accident eight were hurt, five being children. Harry Arney, secretary and treasurer of a publishing company, who was driving the car, failed to see a rapidly moving street car as he was crossing a street. The street car struck the front of the machine and tossed it back a dozen feet, throwing the women and children of the party to the pavement.

Although Mrs. Arney's head struck the pavement with great force, she was still holding the child close to her bosom when aid had reached her.

All the injured will recover except Mrs. Arney, who is thought to be fatally injured.

Over-Worked Girls

Read What This Girl Says:

Appleton, Wis.—"I take pleasure in writing you an account of my sickness. I told a friend of mine how I felt and she said I had female trouble and advised me to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as she had taken it herself for the same trouble with wonderful results. I had been sickly for two years and overworked myself, and had such bad feelings every month that I could hardly walk for pain. I was very nervous and easily tired out and could not sleep nights. I had dizzy spells, and pimples came on my face. But I have taken your Vegetable Compound and I am entirely cured. I think it is the best medicine in existence."—Miss Cecilia M. Bauer, 1161 Lawrence St., Appleton, Wis.

THIS GIRL SAYS IT IS WOMAN'S BEST FRIEND:

Chicago, Ill.—"Your Compound cured all my troubles and I am feeling strong and happy and able to work now. Wherever I go I shall praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as I think it is woman's best friend. I have told all my friends the good it has done me."—Miss Maggie Isbaur, 2418 So. Whipple Street, Chicago, Illinois.

Lorimer, Iowa—"I had a heavy cold in the spring and got all run down and was irregular. I had no strength and had bearing down pains in my sides and back and was very nervous and excitable. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am all right again, and stronger than before."—Miss L. E. Williams, Lorimer, Iowa.

Is it not reasonable to suppose that a medicine that did so much for these girls will benefit any other girl who is suffering with the same troubles?

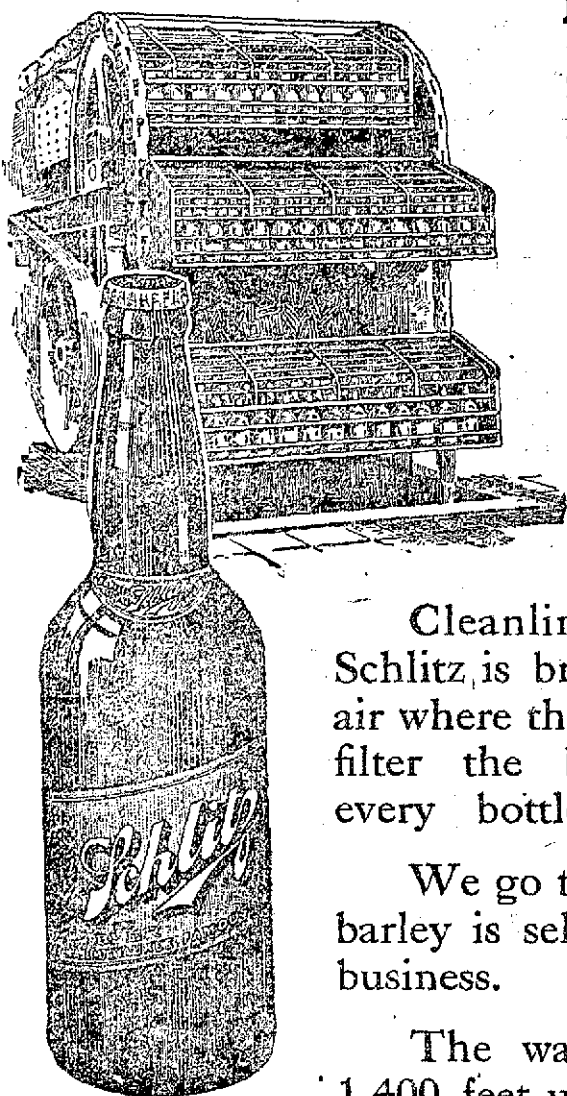

Does it not seem the only sensible thing to give such a medicine at least a trial? You may be sure that it can do you no harm, and there is lots of proof that it will do you much good.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health free of charge. Address Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.

Made Pure Kept Pure It's the Brown Bottle

Cleanliness is a science where Schlitz is brewed. We filter even the air where the beer is cooled. Then we filter the beer. Then we sterilize every bottle.

We go to Bohemia for hops. Our barley is selected by a partner in our business.

The water is brought from rock 1,400 feet underground. Our yeast is produced forever from the same mother cell.

Schlitz beer is sent to you in Brown Bottles, protecting its purity from the brewery to your glass. Light starts decay even in pure beer. Dark glass gives protection against light.

PUTS OIL ON BABY; SETS IT AFIRE

Three-Year-Old Boy Saturates Younger Brother and Applies Match.

SACRAMENTO, June 8.—Louis Sanchez, three years old, poured coal oil over the dress of his brother Robert, 17 months old, and set fire to him in the residence of their father, Antonio Sanchez.

In an instant the baby was wrapped in a sheet of flames. His mother ran to it and fought out the flames with her bare hands. The child will probably die. The two children were playing in the kitchen. Louis understood the use of coal oil, but probably did not know what would happen to his baby brother, when he carefully saturated his dress from the oil can, scratched a match and started the blaze.

MICHIGAN CITY CUPID DIES AT RIPE OLD AGE

MICHIGAN CITY, Ind., June 8.—Jack Snook, whose office has been visited by hundreds of Chicago couples desiring to be married, died yesterday, aged 75.

For forty years he dispensed justice in a little room where, under a large paper bell he joined perhaps a thousand Chicagoans in marriage. The justice of the peace was first lieutenant of Company A, Fifteenth Michigan Volunteers, and served throughout the Civil war.

HYATT AROUSED BY DRESS SUITS

Demands That High Schools of State Be Kept Very Democratic.

SACRAMENTO, June 8.—Under the title "Keep the High School Democratic," Superintendent Hyatt has issued a circular in which he declares that the spectacle of high school boys graduating in swallow-tail coats, seen in one school last year, is absurd and should never be repeated.

Hyatt scores the evil of extravagance in expenditure permitted to children. He suggests a reform in school expenditures connected with public entertainment and banquets given by graduating classes.

Hyatt's circular in part is as follows: "One of the most insidious evils that has wormed its way, almost unnoticed, into the public school system is the extravagance in expenditure which has been permitted to children. Sometimes the scene at the entrance to the school buildings at noon remind the passerby of a mansion at which an afternoon reception is in progress."

BRINGS HUMILIATION.

"The evil of this custom lies not only in the formation of habits of extravagance in the children, but in the humiliation it brings to the poorer children and in the extra burden it lays upon their parents. In one of the larger high schools in this state, in the Bay region, cases have been brought to the principal's attention of girls being withdrawn from school by their mothers because they could not keep up with the competition of clothes."

The absurd sight of a class of high school boys graduating in swallow-tail coats, which was seen in one school last year, should never be repeated. In one school the suggestion has been offered that the girls should be required to make their own dresses. This would give all the girls an even chance to be dressed becomingly, and would probably make it certain that all would be dressed simply. The elimination of engraved invitations and of expensive presents and flowers is also desirable."

FINDS NITRE BED.

SACRAMENTO, June 8.—News has been received here through Western Pacific sources that a large body of nitre or saltpeter has been found in Nevada, eighteen miles out from Gravelly, and that the government and large powder manufacturers have sent experts there to make examinations. The deposits have been found to be the largest in North America and next in greatness to those in Chile, according to information received here.

PENOLOGY PROGRAM VERY EXTENSIVE

National Conference of Charities and Corrections Opens in Boston.

BOSTON, June 8.—An extensive and varied program was carried out by the National conference of charities and corrections this morning. Following the general session, in Ford Hall, which was taken up with the reports of corresponding secretaries of the states and territories represented, a wide range of subjects dealing with charity correction were discussed in the public halls around Beacon Hall.

Adequate relief for families and neighborhoods, the care of destitute and neglected children, housing, health and recreation, drunkenness and mental defects of law breaking delinquents listened to by the visiting delegates to get in touch with the most advanced theories for successful work in their chosen field.

At the Twentieth Century Hall, Dr. Harlow Brooks and Dr. W. B. Williams of New York discussed the subject of drunkenness in regard to the effect of alcohol on the organs and functions of the body. Miss Jane Addams of Chicago and Joseph Lee, considered the problems of housing, health and recreation, and delegates interested in the mental defects of delinquents listened to addresses by Dr. William Healy of Chicago, Dr. M. G. Schlapp of New York, Professor Maurice Parmelee of the University of Missouri and many other noted experts in Penology.

PLANS SIX MONTHS ARMY ENLISTMENT

General Wood Wants to Give College Men Taste of Life.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—To popularize the army, to interest a class of persons who heretofore have been attracted to the commissioned grades, and to extend the benefits of military training, is the purpose of General Wood, chief of staff, in proposing to Congress a novel scheme for six-month enlistments.

It is his belief that many high school boys and graduates of colleges may be enticed by the promise of a short taste of military life to enlist for that period who would not care to abandon the business careers they have mapped out, as would be the case in a five years' term. Youngsters of high intelligence should easily be able to ground themselves in the military practices in six months' hard work and the benefit to be derived from the setting up of grills and regular habits of life at a formative period would tend to physical development.

With these reasons in mind, General Wood is urging public discussion of the subject with the expectation of pressing the legislation upon Congress at the regular session next winter.

NOME SHORT OF FOOD.

NOME, June 8.—The steamer Corwin, which arrived from Seattle two days ago, the first boat into Bering sea this year, has been unable to make a landing because of the ice, and the food shortage in Nome is becoming serious. The Corwin will probably be able to land her 102 passengers and precious cargo of green stuff today.

JAMES CLARK, HIS NAME IS "CARRIE" ON RECORDS

LOCKPORT, N. Y., June 8.—When James Clark, son of Thomas Clark, called at the city clerk's office to get a certificate of birth so that he might go to work he found that the records show that he is a girl, and that his name is Carrie. Assistant City Clerk Fitzsimmons dug into the records of the day of James' birth and found that Carrie, a daughter, had been born to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Clark. The mistake, evidently, was caused by the doctor filing the certificate. James, therefore, must continue to be a girl on the records until he finds the doctor.

HEART--TRIBUNE'S PAGE FOR WOMEN--HOME

OF the prettiest weddings of the year took place last night when Ernest Price claimed Miss Kathleen Sharwood as his bride at the Claremont home of the bride's mother, Mrs. W. J. Sharwood.

The young couple plighted their troth in a picturesque bower of flowers erected at one end of the drawing-room, which was artistically decorated in pink curtains and fernery, making a beautiful setting for the handsome gowns of the bridal party. The wedding gown was of heavy white satin, embroidered in gold and pearls and elaborated with old Honiton lace, while the bride's bouquet was of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. The sister of the bride, Miss Phyllis Sharwood, the maid of honor, wore a white embroidered frock of exquisite texture.

Miss Amy Price and Miss Evelyn Burrill, as bridesmaids, were gowned in pink marquisette made over pink satin.

The bride's mother wore an artistic creation in tones of gray and pink. Guy Sharwood acted as best man. Four little ribbon-bearers formed the aisle. They were Lucille Craig, Anna Smith, Muriel Strong and "Buster" Smith.

The bride is the daughter of the late W. J. and Mrs. Sharwood and is prominently connected. Her brother, Dr. W. J. Sharwood, was formerly professor at the state university.

She is a graduate of Miss Head's private school in Berkeley, and has a wide circle of friends in that city.

Mr. Price is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Price, and is in business in San Francisco. After an elaborate supper the couple departed on their honeymoon. On their return they will live in Woolsey street in the Claremont district.

WOMEN IN THE NEWS

'BROMO KING' TO RE-WED, IS RUMOR

Mrs. Ethel McCormick May Become the Bride of Emerson.

ALBANY, June 8.—Commodore Isaac B. Emerson, the "bromo seizer king," recently divorced, will, according to a circumstantial report, be re-married to Mrs. Ethel McCormick of New York. The wedding, it is said, is to take place at Yonkers, N. Y., on June 28, and the honeymoon will be spent in Europe.

The details of the affair leaked out following a yachting party aboard the Emerson yacht, Margaret, on which Mrs. McCormick and her daughter were the guests of Emerson.

Emerson and Mrs. McCormick became acquainted at the time that Emerson was living in New York with his daughter, Mrs. McKim. Mrs. McCormick's husband was living at the time, but was in poor health, and Commodore Emerson offered Mr. and Mrs. McCormick the use of his country home in South Carolina, in the hope of restoring the patient's health. The offer was accepted, but McCormick failed to recover.

Break Engagement

NEW HAVEN, June 8.—A broken engagement announced on the selected wedding day was recorded in the case of Audubon Tyler and Bessie Porter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Porter. Tyler is the son of the late Morris Frank Tyler, treasurer of Yale university. His mother was the daughter of Audubon, the naturalist, for whom he was named. He and Miss Porter, both students in New York, it is supposed, that artistic temperament had to do with the sudden breaking of the engagement.

The official announcement is as follows: "It is announced that the marriage of Miss Bessie Porter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Porter, Jacksonville, Fla., to Audubon Tyler, of New York, son of Mrs. Morris F. Tyler, New Haven, announced in several of yesterday's newspapers, to be celebrated at the home of the bride, will not take place, the engagement having been broken."

Wed in Secret

LONDON, June 8.—Viscount Chelsea and Miss Marie Coxon, a niece of Lady Jardine, were married at Christ church, Down street, yesterday. Secretary surrounds the ceremony, which was witnessed by a few of the bride's friends. The bride is a pretty girl of 21 years. The groom recently became heir to the earldom of Cadogan and an income of $500,000 annually on the death of his seven-year-old nephew. A short time before he had been declared a bankrupt.

Earl Cadogan, formerly lord lieutenant of Ireland and now in his 71st year, married Countess Paley at Florence a week before the engagement of the heir was announced, January 9 last.

Miss Bryan Weds

A reception which followed the ceremony was attended by several hundred Lincoln and out-of-town guests.

Weds Sister-in-Law

SANTA ROSA, June 8.—A surprise marriage occurred here late yesterday when Mrs. Julia Ham, a widow of late Judge B. D. Ham, who was on the superior bench in Napa county for twenty years, was united to her brother-in-law, James T. Ham, of Verona, Mo. The Rev. Peter Colvin was the officiating minister. The bridegroom is 60 and bride 55, and both are wealthy.

MADISON, Wis., June 8.—Eighty years old and still enjoying college life, Amy W. Winship of Racine, who entered the university next fall as the only co-ed in the United States, and probably in the world. Mrs. Winship, who is completing her second year in the arts course at Ohio state university, was a personal friend of Abraham Lincoln.

Noted Woman Dies

NAPA, June 8.—Mrs. Anna Maria Pederson, a prominent member of the Order of the Eastern Star, and wife of J. B. Pederson, generalissimo of the Knights Templar, and past patron of the Eastern Star at Napa, is dead at her home on Oak street after an illness of many months.

Mrs. Pederson was the victim of a complication of serious diseases, and had been an invalid for many months. She was the mother of Miss Edna L. Pederson, the daughter of Mrs. P. D. Michelson, an aged pioneer of Napa, and the sister of Mrs. Charles A. Clenden of San Francisco, and Mrs. Ida Knief, Mrs. Levi Chapman, Paul D. Michelson, Oliver M. ## WINS PRAISE WITH ART

MRS. LARZ ANDERSON, society leader and artist.

NEW YORK.—Mrs. Larz Anderson is known to the smart colony in Newport, Boston and New York and Washington for her magnificent social entertainments. She has won distinction in art circles. Boston critics announce her sketches to be fine examples of art. The Andersons have a magnificent home in Washington. Mrs. Anderson is one of the wealthiest women in that city. She will doubtless add to her reputation as one of the most perfect hostesses when she goes to Belgium if her husband is made United States Minister to that country. He has also been mentioned prominently in connection with the Berlin Embassy.

SOME THINGS WOMEN ARE DOING

NEW HAVEN.—Mrs. Samuel D. Parks, the slideshow midget of Ringling Brothers' circus, and the wife of another freak, has given birth to a son.

DEVIL'S LAKE, N. D.—Judge Buttz of the District Court has under advisement an interesting Indian adoption case. The Indian, Milubaya, and his wife, who live in Benson county, petitioned to be allowed to adopt as their own son a child of six years named Silas Lawrence (in Indian, Wakanapihpa), whom they had reared since he was an infant.

The mother of the child is the daughter of Melchobaya and his wife and has consented in writing to the adoption of the child by its grandparents. Charles Lawrence, the father of the child, opposes the adoption, claiming that in 1905 he was granted a divorce from his wife and given the custody of the child.

The petitioners claim that the father abandoned the child and, as they have reared it and received no support whatever from the father, they are entitled to adoption.

The father has since remarried and has another family.

LOS ANGELES.—To show the Court's disapproval of marrying on two hours' acquaintance, Judge Monroe announced that he would withhold the decree of annulment of the marriage of W. T. Marten and Emma B. Marten for ninety days.

Marten, who lives in Comona, was a member of the Board of Supervisors that built the present Court House, has a big fortune and is known as the "millionaire bee king." In August, 1910, he subscribed for a matrimonial paper. One of the advertisements struck his fancy. It read:

"Am a farmer's daughter, aged 37, American, Presbyterian, kind hearted and loving, 5 feet 6, weight 139, perfectly healthy, fond of home life, can do any kind of housework, school education, light blue eyes, dark hair, fair complexion, sincere and will marry soon if suited."

This was Emma J. Bennett of Washington, N. J. In October Marten sent her a ticket and $25 for her expenses to come to California. Two hours after she arrived they were married.

By Your Color You Shall Be Known

NEW YORK.—If your color is red, Mr. Chocolate Colored Jack Johnson would better be nice and humble when you are around. Red means physical force. If you cast an aura of blue you are awfully good—blue being the color for morals. If you look white—psychically, understand you are spiritual in superb degree. And suppose you are green? You are not jealous. "Nay, Iago, not jealous" (Shakespeare). If you cast forth rays like a safety signal on the subway, you are mentally a mogul.

So it would appear from the statements of an august mannered woman, name of Mme. Adele Marie Rique (pronounced much like the name of a delightful summer beverage that includes a lime).

Mme. Gordon—bag pardon, Rique—held a very successful meeting in the Waldorf-Astoria the other evening in which she spread her doctrines of "The Advanced New Thought" with a lavish swing of language. She called at the editorial rooms of a local paper and told some more about the "University of Soul Cultivation, Mental and Material Elevation. The "University" set up to encircle all religions.

Mme. Rique said also yesterday that it wasn't only by your color but by your fragrance that you shall be known.

"Consider life as a circle in which there are four quarters, the moral, the physical, the mental and the spiritual,"

said she. "All these must be in tune for the human being to acquire the state of absolute perfection. The mental and the physical work together and the spiritual and the moral work together and each pair works reactively against the other, but out of this friction arrives the degree of absolute perfection. Do you see?"

The reporter was sure he did.

Mme. Rique's cult is also known as the "Circle of Universal Soul Freedom." Listen to what happens if you join it and get in "good":

"Every member of this circle shall have equal advantages for the development of body, brain and soul. This includes elevating the practical an artistic combination of nature, talents and power, such as in relation to social and domestic life, financial and commercial, music art, drama, literature and science, all to be made practicable, useful and enjoyable, rather than drudgery and compulsory, and bring peace of mind, happiness, health and success. Our pleasures shall be intensified and our burden erased and forgotten."

And if that does not sufficiently cheer you up, here's some more:

"The soul understands its own necessities, consequently the aspirations reflect the soul's trend and aim in order to materialize for further elevation. Therefore we must make our own personal applications to ourselves and everything which we know and act on it and master the situation and therefore register progress. It is only the practical use of what we know that helps obtain our desires and achieve our aspirations."

Well, rather. And then this: "Our basic truth is the underlying law of growth in the universal life, love, freedom and kingdom."

Moreover, the Circle of Universal Soul Freedom undertakes as follows:

"Physical grace and self-reliance cultivated. Temperamental forces regulated. Natural ability in art, music, literature, etc." (wonder what "etc." stands for), "increased to fullest extent."

"Traits of heredity modified or erased."

Besides which:

"Moral and spiritual qualities directed in ways that will lead to power and protection."

JILTED GIRL SHOOT'S HERSELF.

MILLVILLE, N. J.—Jilted by her lover, it is alleged, Clara Russell, sixteen, shot herself in the breast at her home in Port Morris and was taken dying to the County Hospital.

Robert Turner of the same town has been keeping company with the girl and she had expected to be married to him in a few days. Last week Turner, it is alleged, broke the engagement. He was arrested on complaint of her relatives and was arraigned before Justice J. H. Barabough, but still refused to marry her.

OAKLAND'S BOYS AND GIRLS

MOTHERS' CLUB OF PIEDMONT PLANS FESTIVAL

The Mothers' Club of the School of Piedmont will hold its first annual garden fete in the school grounds in September. The festival was to have been held prior to the close of school, but owing to the number of events that crowded the calendar before vacation the fete was postponed.

Leading women of Piedmont will assist in arranging the booths and the entertainment, which will be provided by the pupils of the school.

One of the recent events held under the auspices of the Mothers' Club was the operetta entitled "Three Teddy Bears." The performance was a novelty and displayed the talent of the boys and girls.

Something to remember before making mistakes is that being sorry about it afterward won't make them.

TEMPORARY TRUCE IN SAN FRANCISCO POLICE CONTROVERSY

SEYMOUR AND MARGARET EDWARDS WILL TELL HOW
WHITE MAKE NO MOVE SHE ATTAINED PHYSICAL PERFECTION

Both Sides Await Action to Be Taken by the Court Tomorrow.

Lull in the Struggle for Possession of Police Chief Authority.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—With both sides resting under arms, ready to fight at the first sign of advance on the part of the other, and waiting anxiously for some cloud on the horizon which might disturb the unwarmed quietness of the situation, the Seymour-White forces are extremely inactive today. Attorney Bell, representing D. A. White, acting chief, was expecting a modification of Judge Seawell's injunction, which might permit of his client's opening an office in the Hall of Justice this morning. He hoped that the court would allow White to receive reports and to give orders, leaving Seymour, the actual chief, merely in possession of an office and some books and papers.

NO MODIFICATION.

Up to noon this modification of the legal bonds, which restrain both the commissioners and White had not been forthcoming, and neither side seemed anxious to make an additional step which could only serve to complicate further the somewhat intricate mesh of legal controversy which must be untangled in department No. 1 of the superior court tomorrow.

Chief Seymour was smiling today. There was, to be sure, the mark of care upon his brow, and it was easy to be seen that he had been worrying and that his calm exterior was somewhat forced.

"This has been a quiet day with me," he said. "So far there have been no legal steps taken by the other side, and I have heard of no decision from the court. Everything seems to have been held off for tomorrow."

IN STATUS QUO.

Attorney Bell asserted that he would take no further steps until the court has decided in their present status for the day.

Tomorrow the injunction, the writ of review, the writ of prohibition, and the application for books and papers are all to be determined by Judge Seawell's argument. In addition, the court is expected to render his decision on the application to vacate the writ of review which was argued at great length by both sides on Tuesday.

The supreme court decision today in the Bannerman case, in which the court held that the mayor had no legal right to oust a commissioner without giving him a hearing, a trial and a chance to defend himself, it is believed will have an important bearing on present and future developments in the police department as well as all other departments of the city government.

CLEAR SCHAFFER OF GRAVE CHARGE

Young Society Man Exonerated at Executive Meeting of the Club.

Frank Schaffer, a young society man, against whom charges of a serious nature were made several days ago by members of Le Tres Joli Club, was exonerated last night at an executive meeting of the club and the whole affair placed in the category of unfounded statements, made through a misconception of actual events.

Schaffer was accused of having taken money from the pocket of a guest at a dance given last Friday evening in the Home Club and the charges were based upon circumstantial evidence alleged to have been obtained by a member of the club who had found Schaffer in the dressing room dozing into the pockets of a coat which later turned out to be his own. He explained that he had been seeking lozenges, but by his offer to make good any sum missing rather than have any publicity given such an affair, he was further questioned.

Guests of The Tribune to See Charms of 'Perfect Girl'

Every Woman Is Invited to Be Present at the Orpheum Tomorrow

Be There On Time; Tomorrow IS the Day of All Days

Tomorrow's the day! Woman's Day at the Oakland Orpheum!

It's on Friday, at 11 o'clock in the morning.

Be there, ladies!

Be there as guests of THE TRIBUNE.

Admission is free on Woman's Day. Why? Because THE TRIBUNE has so arranged it that every woman, and every girl over 16, can see and hear and talk to the Perfect Girl at the Orpheum tomorrow morning.

It's a glorious chance to learn how Mrs. L. Edith Edwards made her daughter, Margaret, "The Perfect Child."

Sounds almost too good to be true, but it is true, and Mrs. Edwards will tell you all, ladies, just how it was done.

WILL TELL ALL.

The Perfect Girl will be on the stage with Mrs. Edwards, and all the muscles which have been so perfectly developed will be revealed to the women present in all the rare glory of their natural beauty.

It will all be for women only.

No men will be allowed in the theater. All the theater attacks will be women. Not a man will be in evidence anywhere.

Come and ask all the questions you wish.

Mrs. Edwards will answer them all—if she can.

The club women of the city have endorsed Mrs. Edwards' plan to educate the girls, and the mothers, too, into the path that leads to physical and mental perfection.

There will be hundreds of club women in the audience. Join them!

And remember this last word:

Come early to the Orpheum Friday morning.

The doors open at 10:30 o'clock. Be there then!

No seats reserved. Take the best you can get, and the best will be for the first comers.

Come early!

Perfection!

That's the thing!

Who wouldn't like to have a perfect chest, perfect arms, perfect legs, perfect ankles, perfect knees, perfect feet and perfect health?

That's what Margaret Edwards, the "Perfect Girl" who is dazzling the crowds at the Oakland Orpheum, enjoys.

It wasn't a birthright, though. She gained it through the efforts of her mother, Mrs. Edwards, of 2333 Carlton street, Berkeley, who developed Miss Margaret from a sickly babe into a gloriously perfect girl.

Now Mrs. Edwards is to tell the secret of how that was all done.

THE TRIBUNE has arranged with Mrs. Edwards to have the Orpheum management for a Woman's Day at the Orpheum tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock, when every woman of Alameda county and all the girls who are over 16, can see "The Perfect Girl," and can hear Mrs. Edwards tell the secret of her perfection.

EVERYBODY COMING.

All the mothers can be there.

All the women who long for physical health and beauty and perfection can be there.

Everybody can come and hear the story

MARGARET EDWARDS, "The Perfect Girl," who will display her charms to guests of THE TRIBUNE at the Oakland Orpheum.

ENJOYS HER EXERCISES

BY MARGARET EDWARDS, "THE PERFECT GIRL."

I am glad that the New York Physical Culture Society found that there were no flaws in me physically. It won't make me conceited, or anything like that, because it is all just natural. I have always loved the training that mamma gave me, and I think that is the reason I always feel so well.

Mamma would never let me look upon my physical exercises as work, but always made me enjoy them. So there is no effort in anything. That, mamma says, is the real secret of the thing. I have always taken these little exercises every day, and I would miss them very much if I were to stop them. But I would no more think of stopping them than I would to stop drinking water. I like to be out of doors. I would rather be out than in. Now, for instance, take this little exercise: just swinging the foot back and forth like this, or going up and down on the tips of the toes. I never do it as if it were something that must be done. I never feel that way about it. I have never counted each movement solemnly, as most girls do. I just enjoy it.

I love to ride horseback, and I have my own horse. I would not want to keep still or sit around and do nothing. I want to run. I want to ride horseback.

I find you can always make a game out of whatever you do. Mamma has taught me that to exercise the imagination is one of the best things that one can do. She says it has as much effect upon the body as anything possibly could.

I always get along pretty well at school, and keep abreast with the class. Mamma says there is no use in over-straining, and that the same rules ought to hold good where your mentality is concerned as hold good where your body is concerned. I never put in much time doing home work. I go to bed about 9 or 9:30 o'clock and get up at 6:30. I eat three meals a day, but never eat a great deal at a time. I always eat as much as I want, though. As for tea and coffee, I do not miss them.

I do not remember ever being sick or feeling very blue or being tired. I am always pretty happy.

and see "The Perfect Girl"—except the men.

The men must see "The Perfect Girl" at a regular Orpheum performance, if they get a chance to see her at all, for there will be no man allowed in the Orpheum theater on Friday morning.

The men need not complain. There is a matinee every day at the Orpheum and a performance every night, and at each of these Miss Margaret Edwards appears and goes through her marvelously interesting exhibition of physical culture. So, cheer up, men.

Don't begrudge the women their chance to have the exclusive right of way at the Orpheum on Friday morning.

EVERYBODY TALKING.

Everywhere one goes this week one hears talk of The Perfect Girl.

It's amazing what a furor the girl has created. Over the tea cups one hears the talk, and in cafes, hotels, barber shops, clubs, on street cars and even in churches one hears the words "Perfect Girl" whispered, as men and women discuss the maiden.

Mayor Frank K. Mott is interested, for he sent to Manager George Ebel of the Oakland Orpheum a letter yesterday referring to the performance of The Perfect Girl, concluding with these words:

"I shall try and avail myself of the opportunity of witnessing same."

Mayor Mott will be welcome at the Orpheum, where he is a regular attendant, by the way.

The Elks are tremendously interested, both in Berkeley and in Alameda, while of course the Oakland Elks, always appreciative of beauty and especially where Alameda county products are concerned, are right to the front as boosters of "The Perfect Girl," who is an Alameda county girl.

Last night the Oakland Elks auctioned off a box at the Orpheum and the highest bidder will occupy that box at one performance during this week, in honor of "The Perfect Girl."

SALE OF "HYPO" NEEDLES

BARRED IN NEW YORK

ALBANY, N. Y., June 8.—Governor Dix has signed a law prohibiting the sale of hypodermic syringes or needles at retail.

ROBBIE GETS COIN.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—Mrs. Virginia Stewart, 616 Fell street, reported to the central station that her purse had been snatched from her by a man at Eddy and Taylor streets. She states that there was $4 in money in the pocketbook, and later Special Officer Gilmore picked it up and turned it in to headquarters. The coin was missing.

CELEBRATION PLANNED.

FRESNO, June 8.—The chamber of commerce has discussed plans for a celebration at Sagers bridge, on the San Joaquin river, to welcome the river steamer that starts on its trip from the bay June 9.

COURT GIVES IMPORTANT DECISION

City Appointees Cannot Be Ousted Without Fair Trial, Say Supreme Justices.

School Director Bannerman Wins Suit Against Auditor for Salary.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—Holding that the mayor of the municipality cannot remove a commissioner occupying an appointive position without due cause and without giving him an opportunity to defend himself, the supreme court this morning rendered one of the most important decisions of the year, so far as municipal affairs are concerned.

The case is that of Thomas R. Bannerman vs. Auditor Boyle. Bannerman was president of the board of education at the time of the coming into office of the McCarthy administration, and by means of injunction, the members have been able to hold their positions up to the present time. Auditor Boyle refused to pay Bannerman's salary, hence the present action was begun.

Today's decision not only has the effect of giving the petitioner his back pay, but holds that the mayor has not the power to remove an appointive officer merely by a blanket order or on general charges, but must have a real cause and give the appointee an opportunity to be heard and to defend himself.

This opinion will have a widespread effect on all future actions of the chief executive of the city and will undoubtedly have a bearing on the present case of Chief of Police Seymour.

Commissioner Percy Henderson was removed by Mayor McCarthy peremptorily, and without a hearing, and if he seeks to avail himself of the result of today's opinion, a contest for the office may be held. It is not thought, however, that this will be done as Henderson's successor has already been appointed. However, should the mayor seek to remove Isaac Spiro, as has been reported he intends, the matter might then be threshed out.

Robert Robertson, president of the club, introduced the guests of honor in a complimentary toast.

Judge Graham Is Pickpocket's Victim

Reports to the Police That His Watch Was Taken From Him.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—Superior Judge Thomas F. Graham, he of Cupid fame, and one of the devoted followers and promoters of baseball, was made the victim of a pickpocket last night at the Orpheum. The kindly jurist, who is ever ready to help those in need, reported to the police this morning that his watch had been taken from him some time between 8 and 11 p. m. During this time he was in or about the O'Farrell street playhouse.

DOSCHER ALLOWED TO PLAY WITH LEAGUE

CINCINNATI, June 8.—The National Baseball Commission today decided to allow John H. Doscher, once well-known as a pitcher for the Brooklyn and Cincinnati Nationals, to play ball with a National league club the rest of this season. Doscher, in his application for reinstatement, declared he is without means and that his family will suffer if he is not allowed to play.

WOMAN INJURED AS SHE STEPS FROM CAR

As Mrs. N. Chapman of 1542 Verdi street, Alameda, stepped from a car at Thirteenth street and Broadway last evening she was run down by a horse and rig belonging to James Hoag of 825 Cedar street and thrown to the ground. She was badly shaken up, and received cuts and bruises about the hands and arms, but no serious injuries. She was taken to her home.

WOMAN SHOT DOWN IN ROAD

Mysterious Crime Stirs Louisville; Arrest Is Made.

GROUPS OF GRAMMAR SCHOOL STAGE SCENE

Work of the Pupils in Manual Training and Other Arts On Exhibition.

LOUISVILLE, June 8.—As the result of a mysterious shooting on the Shelbyville pike, a few miles out of the city, last night, Thomas C. West, treasurer and secretary of a local life and accident insurance company, is under arrest today charged with malicious shooting and wounding. Miss Mattie Wetherby is in a hospital probably fatally wounded.

Miss Wetherby was driving home with an escort last night when a man's voice demanded, "Give me back my ring."

An instant later there was a shot fired and Miss Wetherby jumped from the buggy, staggered to the road and fell. The bullet entered the right hip.

West was arrested early today following his return from an automobile ride. W. E. Hettmann, who was with West, told the police West told the car, following which he heard a pistol shot. West denies having shot Miss Wetherby. The young woman says she was mistaken for someone else.

LOOP TERMINAL FOR KEY ROUTE

Company to Facilitate Transfer of Passengers at the Oakland Mole.

That plans are complete for the improvement of the Key Route ferry system so that the capacity of the Oakland and Berkeley ferries for taking on and letting off passengers at the mole will be doubled in the near future, was admitted by one of the officials of the United Properties corporation yesterday.

The concern controls both the Key Route suburban system and the Oakland Traction company and it has been known for several months that a great improvement of the former service was contemplated.

The ferry depot and slips at the end of the Key Route pier are to be considerably enlarged and with the construction of a solid mole of earth and concrete instead of the present pile structure, a series of loops will be installed to facilitate the handling of trains.

The purpose of the new plan is to do away with the present delay in the loading and unloading of trains, which now runs on single tracks and necessitates patrons crossing a series of tracks to reach the ferries at the slips.

According to the present plans trains will enter the depot on a loop of four or six tracks, stopping only long enough to drop and receive passengers and then continue without having to be reversed as at present. The running time of trains will thus be considerably shortened. The necessity for running two sets of trains will also be eliminated.

As announced some time ago, the long pier from the Oakland shore to the ferry depot is to be converted from the old pile structure to a solid earth and concrete mole.

ACCUSE CLERK OF $2500 THEFT

Butchers' Charge Collector Has Altered Bills to Suit Himself.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—An alleged defaulting clerk, trusted with the firm's business and conversant with its affairs, by a systematic scheme of reported thefts has succeeded in stealing several thousand dollars from Wolf & Block, butchers, of 1225 Fillmore street. A. Block, one of the proprietors, discovering by accident the disappearance of funds, reported the affair to police headquarters this morning and asked for the co-operation of the detective department.

The alleged culprit is Albert Oneto, 29 years old who has been employed by the concern for the past twenty months. He has been entrusted with collections, and according to a statement made by Wolf he fled out the back door of the store when he chanced to overhear a conversation in which his employer learned of his alleged double dealing.

His alleged scheme was to collect bills in full and turn in only a portion of the receipts to the firm, leaving a balance on the books, then changing the bills that were given him to correspond. Yesterday a $500 account was given him to collect and he is said to have turned in $4. Block rang up the customer, asked for a further payment and was told that a receipt was held in full. He promptly called upon the man, looked at the receipt, and confirmed his suspicions.

Meanwhile, Oneto had fled and an investigation disclosed so far thefts to the amount of $2500.

BUYS KISSES AT $600 EACH

Charmer and Brother Convicted of Defrauding Iowa Farmer.

Couple Wring $11,812 From Him, Then Tell Him to Go West.

CHISAGO, June 8.—Thomas Foulkes of Danbury, a wealthy Iowa farmer, who has been prosecuting his former fiancée, Miss Leda Miller, and her brother, Attorney J. Marion Miller, on a charge of defrauding him out of $11,812 and two farms, won his case today in the criminal court. A jury returned a verdict of guilty against the girl and her brother.

Foulkes told a remarkable tale of what he characterized as a "financial wooing." He said he bought kisses and caresses from the object of his affections with loans of from $50 to $600, and after he had lost the amount of money named in his suit and after his two farms had followed, the money, his charmer advised him to go to California, read the Bible constantly and marry a widow. He added that it took him six years to discover that his affections were not returned.

The attorney, her brother, was accused of being the one who planned the alleged raid on Foulkes' heart and purse.

P. C. ROSSI SUED FOR $375,000

Morris Kriegbaum Says That He Was Labeled by Swiss Colony Director.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—Morris Kriegbaum, who recently brought suit for $125,000 damages from P. C. Rossi and the other directors of the Italian-Swiss Colony, this morning filed a second action against Rossi in which he asks for $375,000 damages for libel.

The original action sets forth that Kriegbaum, a realty dealer, had been given certain lands to sell and that the directors of the Italian-Swiss Colony and certain other persons had engineered a deal and he had been deprived of his commission. Following the filing of the suit Rossi, according to Kriegbaum, sent a letter to the newspapers which was published in two different organs. This missive said, among other things, according to the complaint, that Kriegbaum was "a fit candidate for examination by a lunacy commission." On the strength of this and other assertions, the enormous damages are petitioned for.

RICHMOND, June 8.—The controversy which has been raging between the members of Volunteer Fire Company No. 1 and the Contra Costa Trades Council over the employment by the former of non-union music for their recent dance may be settled tonight. D. J. McPherson, press agent for the council, has on behalf of that organization extended an invitation to a committee from the fire company to appear at the council's meeting tonight and to present its side of the controversy. By consultation an effort will be made to clear up the disagreements, providing the committee of the fire company agrees to attend.

JOHN DREW COMES IN MAUGHAM PLAY

"Smith" Will Be Played at the Macdonough by Popular Actor.

John Drew will be seen at the Macdonough next Monday night in "Smith," the best of W. Somerset Maugham's comedies. The popular player, it is said, has the good fortune this season to be cast in a role which displays to their finest advantage the excellent qualities of his art, with the result that he presents an engaging portrait which affords his numerous admirers unusual satisfaction.

He has done nothing so likable in recent years as his Thomas Freeman in "Smith," and the play itself is spoken of as well worth Drew's while. The production of the piece in this city will be identical with that given for three months at the Empire Theater, New York. The complete original cast includes Mary Boland, Isabel Irving, Sybil Thorndike, Jane Laurel, Morton Selson, Hagar Short and Lewis Casson.

AWAKES TO FIND HIMSELF AFLOAT

Soldier Walks in His Sleep; Is Near Death in Great Niagara Eddy.

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., June 3.—Roland Poggett, a private from the army post at Fort Niagara, is today congratulating himself that he did not lose his life by going over the brink of the falls. Wary from a long hike during the day Poggett last night lay down in a clump of trees to take a nap. The roar of the falls and the rustling of the leaves overhead carried Poggett in his dreams back to the stirring time in the Philippines when he stalked for Aguinaldo and his little brown men. He was crawling through the tangles of grasses of a lagoon thicket, when he suddenly awoke to find himself afloat in the Niagara river and perilously near the brink of the falls.

Fortunately he was caught by a shore eddy from which he was rescued by a park policeman and several men who formed a living chain.

ROOSEVELT DENIES SUPPORTING TAFT

Declares the Story of Backing Made Out of Whole Cloth.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—Following the meeting between Taft and Roosevelt at Baltimore a story was given wide publicity that Roosevelt had unqualifiedly endorsed Taft for renomination and would be found lined up in support of him in the 1912 campaign. This story was promptly discredited yesterday, both by Roosevelt and the White House authorities.

To a friend here Roosevelt sent the following telegram: "The statement that I have pledged myself to any one for the nomination is absolutely false. I have neither done so nor even discussed doing so. The story is made out of whole cloth."

In a speech at Springfield, Mass., Roosevelt also was quoted as having declared that he had endorsed no man for 1912, and that he had not discussed the subject with anybody.

At the White House it was said that neither Taft nor Secretary Hilges had authorized such a statement. In fact, it was evident that the publication of the story was the source of considerable embarrassment to Taft and his political advisers. It was too much like a repetition of the situation that developed after the Taft-Roosevelt conference in New Haven last October. After that conference it was said Roosevelt had run to Taft for aid in his New York state fight. Roosevelt was greatly incensed at the construction placed upon his visit and intimated to friends that he would never again meet Taft under circumstances which might be misconstrued.

STATE LAND TITLE ASSOCIATION CONVENES

FRESNO, June 3.—The fifth annual convention of the California land title association opened at the chamber of commerce in this city yesterday morning. Between 25 and 30 delegates are in attendance.

San Francisco was selected as the next meeting place of the association. A. J. Carmichael of the city extended the invitation to go to the bay in 1912.

Assemblyman W. A. Sutherland of Fresno read a paper on "The Recent Session of Our Legislature," and H. M. Johnson, also of Fresno, read a paper on "Reclamation and Drainage Tax Liens."

The convention will be in session today and will wind up with a banquet in the Hughes hotel in the evening.

KILLED BY ELECTRICITY. CORDELLA, Cal. June 3.—Michael Bineen, foreman of a Southern Pacific section gang, was accidentally electrocuted yesterday near this town. In order to measure the height of a power line from the ground he placed a railroad spike to a fine wire and threw it over the highly-charged power wire, forming a circuit over which fully 3000 volts of electricity passed through his body. Death was instantaneous.

It is better than mushy porridges because you have to chew it, thereby getting from it all its rich, body-building nutriment.

SECRET SERVICE AFTER GET-RICH-QUICK MEN

WASHINGTON, June 3.—A new get-rich-quick scheme, which rivals some of the swindles of recent years for its ingenuity, is being successfully operated in some of the Pacific coast states. Its trail is said to reach as far east as New York. Secret service men are working on it.

Prospective victims are told that the United States government is short of money and that to avert a panic the treasury is quietly floating an issue of national bank notes. The circular says a coterie of New York financiers have undertaken to underwrite the issue, which is offered to victims on the basis of 50 per cent.

Secret service men say the swindlers usually exhibit a genuine $5 national bank note as a sample of the issue. "Several citizens of Seattle are reported to have paid in sums ranging from $500 to $1000 with the expectation of receiving double that sum in national bank notes before next winter."

SUGAR TRUST HEARINGS. WASHINGTON, June 3.—The first witnesses to appear before the House "sugar trust" investigating committee probably will be heard early next week. The committee held a meeting yesterday to outline the scope of its investigation, but arrived at no definite conclusion.

FRUIT MEN SEEK TO DECIDE TWO PROBLEMS

STOCKTON, June 3.—The fruit and grape picking companies throughout San Joaquin county are making an effort to formulate a scale of wages and arrange for the enforcement of the standardization of fruits and grapes, but up to last evening no agreement has been reached. Two propositions on wages were considered. One was that $2 a day be paid for picking, while the other was a sliding scale of 15, 20 and 25 cents an hour according to the experience of the picker.

Tyler and Oakland Get Away Well in South and Give Hogan's Bunch a Trimming

OAKS ANNEX FIRST GAME OF SERIES FROM VERNON

Tyler Christian Pitches Clever Ball and Team Mates Clout Pellet All Over Field

LOS ANGELES, June 8.—Tyler Christian, the best of the Oaks' hurling staff, backed up by the big sticks of his team-mates, started the week here yesterday as on previous occasions and annexed the first game of the series.

Right off the reel they began to slam Brackenridge and when he had enough and put on the all green with a little yellow in it uniform and quit and sent Fatty Hitt to the hill the Oaks continued to slam the ball and the final score read 9 to 3 in favor of the men who aspire for the pennant.

It wasn't one of those games that set the world afire, for the men from "up state" began scoring in the first round when they gathered three on three hits. In the second round three times again did the bell ring. The third was productive of another run and the fourth brought two more to the Oaks.

Vernon found Christian for ten bingles, three of which came in the fourth inning and gave them one run and four that came in the eighth that gave them two. But the way he pitched in the rough places was what made his work so clever.

MAGGART GETS BACK TO GAME.

Harl Maggart, who sat on the bench for a couple of weeks with a bad kick on the "cub" today and played left field and Brackenridge, Hitt and Hogan wished that the ankle had not become well so soon, for every time the crackback went to the bat he pulled the ball somewhere so that nobody could get his fins on it.

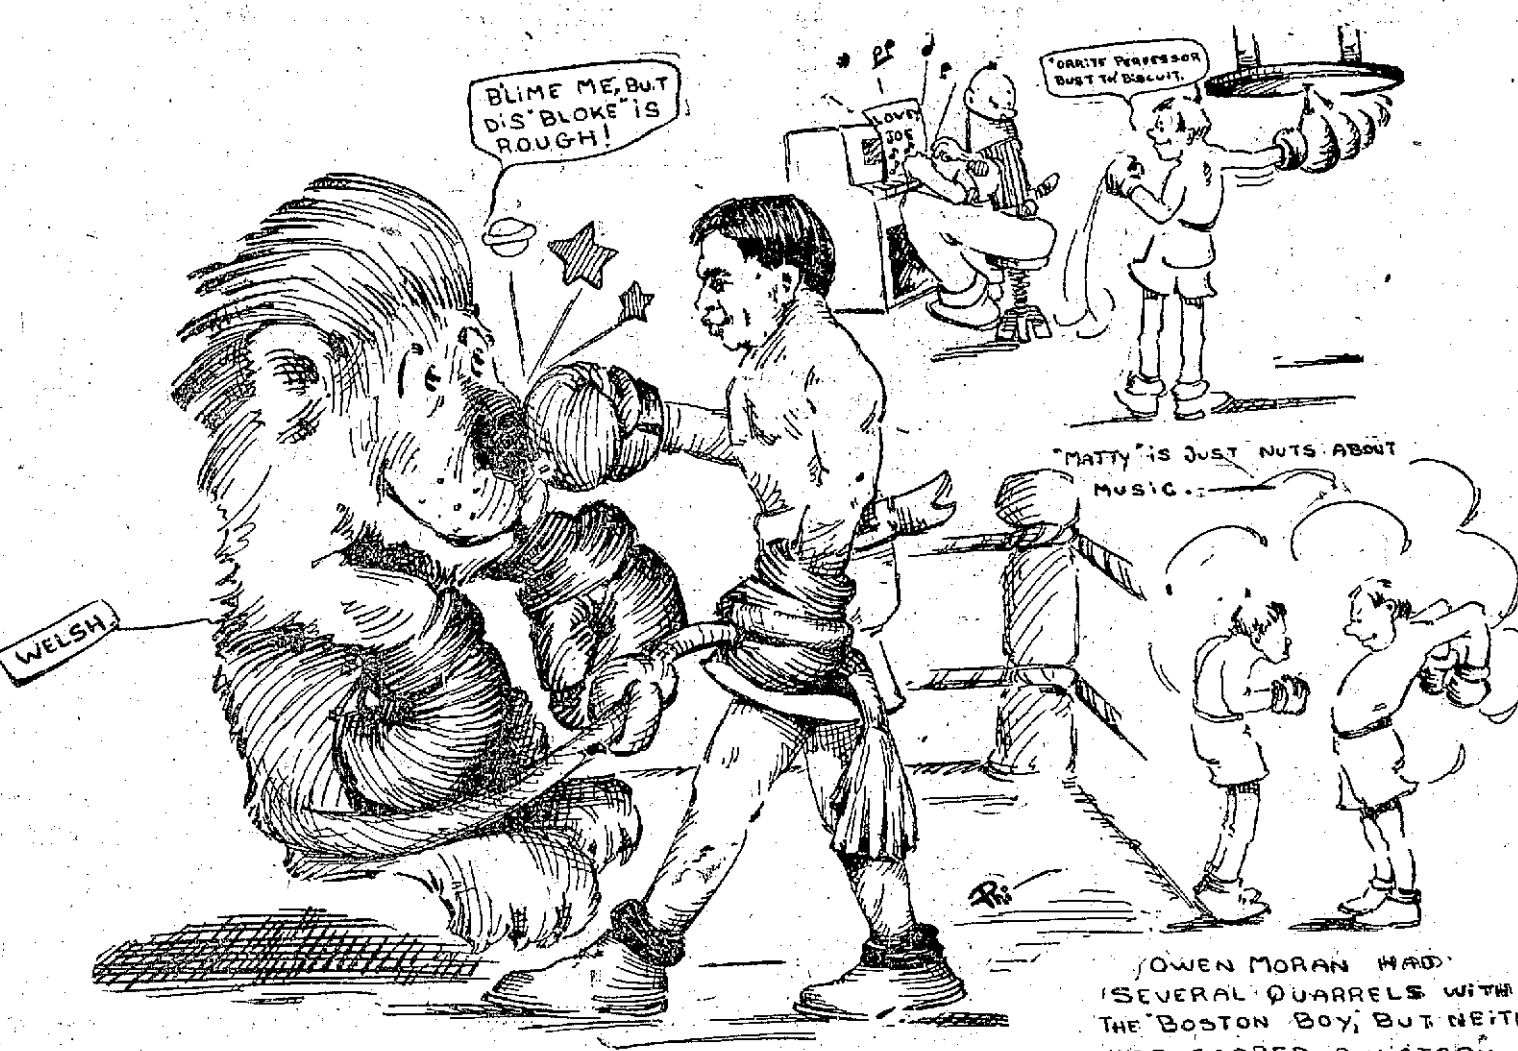

One of these hits was particularly effective, that one in the second. The bases were full and two were down when Harl stepped to the plate.

Wham! went the ball and a two-bagger was the result, sending the three runs over the plate.

The other four hits were singles and all helped Tyler and the Oaks on to fame and glory. Here's the tale of the victory in figures:

BOOKMAKERS FAIL TO WIN STRIKE AT LAGOON TRACK

First race, futurity course, selling—Maxing, 100 (Kirschbaum), even, won; Royal Stone, 111 (Belden), 5 to 1, second; Bonion, 111 (Buxton), 20 to 1, third. Time, 1:19 3-5. Captain Miller, Miss Butte, Maxing, Alexie, Miss Greenwood and Delena finished as named.

FRANK KLAUS IS AMBITIOUS TO BE MIDDLEWEIGHT CHAMP

Freddie Welsh Disappoints Boxing Fans by Non-Arrival; Baldwin Hard at Work

By EDDIE SMITH.

With an eagerness for sightseeing that had not been entirely satisfied by the first long trip he had ever made away from home, Frank Klaus spent the day yesterday in looking over San Francisco and Oakland.

Whenever the youngman hitched up for a rest and with those whom he met, he made an instance of boxing, for, while anything but a talker or bragger, he has an easy, self-assured manner of explaining pugilistic matters that forbid the least suspicion that Frank Klaus is not all that has been said of him. The Eastern newspaper men have been proclaiming Klaus the champion middleweight of the world ever since the death of Stanley Ketchel, and have vowed and declared that the middleweight does not exist at this time who is capable of taking his measure.

The answer Klaus gave to an inquisitive fan yesterday when asked if he claimed the championship title, is a good line on the modest talk the young fellow gives up when pressed for answers.

"I cannot claim anything. Some of the writers in the East have been kind enough to say that I am the logical champion, but in so far as I am concerned I'd rather battle my way to the top, so that the followers of boxing will not be able to say that I claimed anything not coming to me. Both my manager and myself are not very anxious that I should win the coming scrap with Sullivan, but we are also very hopeful that I'll make good with the fans here."

"I think Sullivan is a tough fellow, and I'm glad of this, for it will give me a chance to show what I can do and then if we make good, we can stay right here on the Coast and meet the middleweight one after the other until such time as the championship claim has been settled in the manner in which it should be—by battling for it."

Yesterday Montana Dan Sullivan, the lad who is to face Klaus, was visited by a delegation of interested sporting men.

KLAUS LEAVES GOOD IMPRESSION.

There is positively nothing about young Klaus that would cause any one to fear him under any circumstances. He has a most pleasant smile, loves to joke and jest, and would rather talk automobile than any other thing. Behind all this, however, is that something that spells determination. It is this that over him. The massive and aggressive jaw is an indication of great fight power and the general makeup of the fellow spells ability with the gloves.

During the past few years we have had

OLD-TIMER IS GOING TO TRY AND COME BACK

PITTSBURGH, June 8.—"Mike" Donlin, former outfielder of the New York club, who was recently reinstated by the national commission, joined the team here yesterday. A conference with Manager McGraw is expected to follow some time this afternoon.

Donlin said he did not know what his prospects were in baseball, but that he had heard rumors that he was to be traded to the St. Louis or Cincinnati teams. According to Donlin he would rather be sent to the minor league than join the Cincinnati team.

OLYMPIC CYCLERS TO HOLD REUNION SOON

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—Activities among the members of the Olympic club were stirred yesterday by the announcement that a reunion of the famous Olympic Wheelmen would be held in the near future and that a banquet in which the former enthusiasts will assemble after being disbanded eleven years, will take place.

The Olympic Wheelmen were organized in 1890 during the period when bicycle riding enjoyed unusual popularity and many of the present day members of the winged "O" were included in the ranks of the cyclists in 1900 the wheelmen disbanded, with the decline of this form of sport.

Notice to the effect that an effort was being made to gather the former members was posted at the club yesterday by Harry C. Ramsey, and all interested persons are invited to respond in the reorganization of the wheelmen.

VANDERBILT'S HORSES AGAIN.

PARIS, June 8.—The Prix Onismegardo, valued at $200, was run at Le Tremblay yesterday and won by W. K. Vanderbilt's Hessian. In the Prix de Breaux the same owner's Mirambo finished second.

PITCHER KIT KNIGHT RECEIVE RELEASE TO SEATTLE

The One-time Wonder Is Not Fast Enough and Is Sent Back to Minors.

Oakland is getting rid of those fellows that can't deliver the goods and this morning Pitcher Kit Knight was transferred to the Seattle team of the Northwest League.

Knight has been a great disappointment to the fans of Oakland, for he came with a big reputation and in practice showed plenty of speed and curves and ability to hit the ball. The fighting spirit that goes to make a good pitcher was lacking though, and the class of ball played here was too much for the recruit and it was back to the minors for him.

Oakland took a flying start in the south yesterday and beat the Hoodlums in the opening game of a series that will go six games. Pitcher Christian was sent in to break the first tie, but he soon followed the team and got away with it in grand style. True, his team-mates played their usual fast game behind him and hit the ball early and often, but at that Tyler used his head and deserved all the credit for stowing away the first game.

With the victory of the Oaks right off the road home springs eternal in the fans and they look for the local team to come from the south with half or more of the games played.

Now that Christian has beaten them in the games, the Oaks are looking for the trick once. Fennell ought to gather and Kilroy too, which would be four of the six played.

Let's all get in and root and root hard for the boys to come back better and better all the time.

Cutshaw and Christian of the locals were the only Oaks that didn't grab off a hit. Cutty played his usual game, second and Tyler pitched class AA ball, so we will forgive them for not breaking into the hit column.

Harl Maggart got back into the game after an absence of two weeks and what a return he did have. Every time he faced Brackenridge he laced out a bingle and when Hitt took the elongated slapper's place he, too, received a pounding.

The return of Maggart to the game necessitated the switching of the fielders and Hoffman went to right. The Providence man is in line for his critics now, for nearly every day he is getting one or more hits and holding his position a whole lot better than when he first played here.

Monte Pryl gathered two, Hoffman gathered three, Maggart gathered five and Zacher two hits of the fifteen gathered by the Oaks. All told these four went to bat thirteen times and gathered twelve hits among them. Some hitting, yes.

Christian went through the entire contest without having a pass, made a break and accepted his three chances without a break.

The boss of the Seals takes offense at the scribes because they didn't give Miller more credit for pitching in Tuesday's game. THE TRIBUNE called particular attention to the brilliant work of Miller and showed why he pitched a far better game than did Charley Baum.

Every time Suter pitches he gets in trouble with the Umpires because he doesn't stand on the rubber right. Yesterday O'Rourke took pains to call Hildy's attention to the fact, but the ump, evidently thought Harry was right, for he said nothing.

Jimmy Shinn stood around in those store clothes yesterday owing to a lame back while Al Helster took his place. Albert got in trouble handling bunt twice, but at last played good ball. Luck was with Suter when he flamed out his hit, for the ball struck but a few inches below the top of the screen.

TROUNCE AND ERICKSON TRAINING

GRASS VALLEY, June 8.—Fighting Dick Trounce and Joe Erickson, the "Terrible Duo," will meet in a ten round bout here the night of June 9. Both men are on the ground and are maintaining training quarters. Interest among the miners is running high. The betting today is even.

CUTLERY MAKERS THREE FIGHT FOR TO LOCATE HERE $10,000 ESTATE

Manufacture Will Be Running at Foot of Eighth Avenue Before June 30.

Within three weeks the old plant of the White Ornamental Iron Works, at the foot of Eighth avenue, at De Fremery wharf, will be running full blast with a force of about 75 men, under the management of the Barr Brothers-Rogers Company, formerly of Eugene, Oregon. All the machinery at the large plant is being overhauled and set up, and new machinery will be installed within a few days. The new firm, which was introduced to locate in Oakland mainly through the efforts of the chamber of commerce, will manufacture all descriptions of steel tools and cutlery, such as knives, scissors, razors, needles, etc. in combination with the manufacturing plant a plating apparatus will be run.

The building is also being partially remodeled to meet the convenience of the new concern, which will occupy only a portion of the structure. The International Excavating and Drilling Company, formerly of Portland, will be established soon in the north side of the building. A new entrance is to be cut through the east end of this structure. The office will be in the upper part of the building, and the manufacturing plant will occupy the lower part of the building.

Mrs. Clara Wadsworth of Oakland Wants Share of the Property.

SAN RAFAEL, June 8.—Exciting developments have arisen in the contest over the estate of the late Mrs. Elizabeth S. Strachan, which is controlled by Mrs. Julia Strachan, wife of John Strachan, an architect, and daughter of M. Tompkins, a banker. Through District Attorney Thomas P. Boyd, niece and nephew of Mrs. Strachan, living in Scotland, have filed action in the superior court against Mrs. Clara Wadsworth, who claims to be the true owner of the $10,000 estate of the aged woman, who was her servant, through undue influence exercised over her while she was incompetent.

Yesterday Attorney Boyd filed an action against Mrs. Clara M. Wadsworth, of Oakland, another claimant to the will of the aged woman. This complaint, made on behalf of the niece and nephew of Mrs. Strachan, alleges that Mrs. Wadsworth and her mother, Mrs. Reeves Atkinson, while conducting a home for the feeble and aged at Fruitvale, induced the aged woman to make a will in Mrs. Wadsworth's favor by getting her intoxicated.

As the case now stands three sets of claimants are fighting for the dead woman's savings of $10,000. The niece and nephew in Scotland are Donald, James, and John Strachan. Mrs. Wadsworth and her mother, Mrs. Reeves Atkinson, while conducting a home for the feeble and aged at Fruitvale, induced the aged woman to make a will in Mrs. Wadsworth's favor by getting her intoxicated.

AWARDS INCOME TO DYER HEIRS

Judge Brown Comes to Relief of Three More of the Children.

Judge Everett J. Brown, sitting in the probate department of the superior court, entered an order for the relief of the heirs of the late Mary Miller Dyer of Berkeley, who left valuable property in trust for them without any provision for the will for the distribution of the income of the trust. The court allowed to Miss Blakeney Moore, mother and guardian of the children, out of the accumulation of the trust a lump sum of $450 with which to pay existing debts incurred in support of the children and $25 a month for the maintenance of each child in the future. This was done on the showing made by Mrs. Moore that she was financially unable to provide for the children.

The property of the trust is valued at about $45,000 and will be distributed to all the heirs in 24 hours. ### PETALUMA PRINCIPAL IS NOT REAPPOINTED

PETALUMA, June 8.—At a special meeting of the board of education President Philip Sweeney, presiding, all but two of the present faculty of the Petaluma high school were reappointed. The board of education, which was composed of Miss Helen Watkins, teacher of English, had not been re-elected caused surprise.

Passmore took part in the political campaign last fall and opposed the election of Florence M. Barnes, the successful candidate for superintendent of schools of Sonoma county. Passmore's opposition did not stop with the election of Miss Barnes.

The county superintendent was present at the meeting of the board of education today.

GONZALES PLANS TRIP TO CAPITAL

Provisional Governor of Chihuahua Announces His Intentions.

JUAREZ, June 8.—Abram Gonzales, provisional governor of Chihuahua, announced today that he and his staff will leave tomorrow for the capital of the state. Originally it had been intended that Governor Gonzales should remain away until Chihuahua had been evacuated by the federal troops. Federal troops are still in the city, and 500 insurgents under Gen. Orozco are just outside awaiting to enter with Governor Gonzales.

It is likely that the insurgents will be kept out of the city longest since the federal troops, which were to have gone to Lower California, have been halted pending an investigation as to the loyalty of certain army officers, who are charged with avowing they would join the Lower California so-called Liberal party if they were sent there.

SMOKY CITY BOXER SEEKS TOP RUNG OF LADDER

(Con. from Preceding Page)

from San Francisco and after watching the husky Montana man go through his paces they came back to the city loud in the praise of his condition.

Don boxed eight rounds in all, four with the Cohen and four with a colored middleweight from North Beach.

The match with Klaus is the most important affair of the gloves that Sullivan has ever engaged in for a win will practically make him the champion middleweight of the world. Sullivan has met many of the tough 'uns of the East and up to the time he suffered the injury to his back he was going along nicely. The trouble he had with the back has entirely left him now and both fighter and manager are claiming the best of condition.

SULLIVAN BEING WELL HANDLED.

Sullivan is being managed by Baron Long, who is not only anxious that his man should make good because he is manager, but he is also very fond of Sullivan and everything possible is being done to perfect his condition.

Montana Jack Sullivan, who had the experience of being knocked out by Klaus in three rounds at New York, has a little time ago, will arrive in San Francisco today or tomorrow to help the brother train for the man who seems determined to beat the whole family.

The management of the Oakland Wheelmen Club are making great preparations to handle a big crowd for this contest, which is the most ambitious affair Oakland has boasted of in many years.

FREDDIE WELSH LOST HIS WAY.

Freddie Welsh played a nice April fool joke on the boys last evening. It was announced that he would arrive in San Francisco at 5:30 p. m., but when the boat landed the delegation of sporting writers and the first group of reporters who were waiting for him were informed that Freddie was not on hand.

Milton T. Clark, promoter of the Baldwin-Welsh bout, had journeyed to Stockton to meet the little fellow, and had stayed there in the hope that the next train would bring the much-sought-after fighter. When the boat landed in San Francisco at 10:30 last night many of the friends and admirers of Welsh were again disappointed, but there was no Welsh.

Clark then informed the boys that he had not only failed to meet Welsh, but had also failed to locate him. Up to a late hour this morning Welsh had not been heard from and no one seems to know just when he will arrive.

Matty Baldwin has settled down to his training for the bout, but will not do any boxing until Sunday.

SWIMMING CONTESTS AT SHEEPSHEAD BAY

NEW YORK, June 8.—Sheepshead Bay, instead of Travers Island, will be the scene of the second annual outdoor championship of the Intercollegiate Swimming Association, and July 8 instead of July 1, is to be the date.

This complete change in the plan is announced by the association on grounds that the public interest in Sheepshead Bay will be more likely to be successful than the semi-exclusive meet at Travers Island.

Ten colleges will be represented in the championships.

RIVERS TO MEET DIXON ON SATURDAY

LOS ANGELES, June 8.—Joe Rivers, the best 125-pounder that ever wrote Los Angeles after his name, will face Tommy Dixon of Honolulu Saturday afternoon in a scheduled twenty-round bout.

Dixon is known as the "featherweight champion of the south" by virtue of the fact that he has won the title of champion of the world in the Memphis and New Orleans promoters could produce.

CLASSES ALFANO AS A CRIMINAL

Police Official Declares That "Classical" Camorra No Longer Exists.

VITERBO, June 8.—Simionetti, a police official, was called as a witness today in the trial of the Camorrista for the murder of Gennaro Cuccolo who was to tell what he knew of the criminal organization.

The witness said that the "classical" Camorra no longer existed. The Camorrista of the present day are described as simply groups of criminals who block-mailed thieves, getting from the latter stolen goods for next to nothing. They also practiced usury. He denied that Gennaro Abbate, the informer, was a member of the Camorra.

The witness admitted that Enrico Alfano was at the head of these criminal gangs, the operations of which he illustrated by a case in which Alfano was charged with the murder of a man named Simionetti, had been robbed of jewels and sought the aid of Alfano in recognizing them.

STANFORD GRADUATES MARRIED IN BERKELEY

BERKELEY, June 8.—The wedding of Herbert E. Krollin, Stanford 11, and Miss Katherine Ward Stanford 10, obtained a marriage license in Oakland yesterday and were married at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Alice Hurd at 2540 College avenue, Berkeley. The Rev. Charles E. Aked of the First Congregational Church, San Francisco, read the service.

MISS RIEGELMAN TO GIVE CONCERT

Pupil of Louis Crepaux to Sing This Evening at the Macdonough.

Society is on tiptoe of expectancy over the appearance at the Macdonough theater tonight of Oakland's favorite musical daughter, Miss Mabel Riegelman, the protegee of Madame Gaskel and pupil of Louis Crepaux of San Francisco, a former member of the Paris grand opera. It will be Miss Riegelman's first appearance in public since her return to Oakland some three weeks ago from an engagement with the Chicago Grand opera company. She returned to this country last September from four years of study abroad.

Among those present tonight will be Louis Crepaux, who takes great pride in the success of his pupil.

During her stay abroad Miss Riegelman appeared in several important roles in the Grand opera house at Stettin, Germany, and at a number of other cities throughout the empire. She will sing next season with the Metropolitan opera company, with which she has already had one successful season.

Her program tonight will include "Spring Song" (Mendelssohn), "De Bekebars" (Max Stange), two numbers from "Hansel and Gretel," the aria from "Carmen," "Hoffmann" and "Villanelle" (Cyril Scott), "Take, O Take, Those Lips Away" (Bennett), Russian song, "The Sleeping Princess" (Vorodine), aria from "Madame Butterfly," "Love in Springtime" (Metcalf), "Four Boys" (Erlin Schneider), "Sunshine" (Loring Thomas), "The Song in the Night" (Frederick Maurer). The accompanist will be Frederick Maurer.

PRAYER MEETING TO BE HELD AT RICHMOND

RICHMOND, June 8.—A series of prayer meetings known as the Rockhurst prayer conferences are to be held on the Pacific coast during June, July and August, the first to be held at Richmond June 13 in the Christian and Presbyterian churches.

Successful meetings will be held in Oakland June 14, in San Francisco June 20, at Rockhurst, Mill Valley July 1, and at Twin Lakes during August.

The meetings will be addressed by Count Vladimir Gieseler and the local ministry.

KILLS WIFE DESPITE PLEADING OF SON

SEATTLE, Wash., June 8.—Ora Patterson, a woodsman 38 years old, shot and killed his wife and then committed suicide at their home at Cedar Mountain, twenty miles southeast of here. The only witness to the tragedy was their 8-year-old son Roland, who clung to his father's watch chain and begged him "not to hurt mamma." The boy said his father came home intoxicated and a quarrel followed. There are four children in the family.

GERMANY READY TO SEEK JAPAN

Count von Reventlow Declares That Kaiser Will Weld Alliance.

BERLIN, June 8.—Count von Reventlow, the German naval expert, in an article published here states "If America shows signs of adopting an unfriendly attitude toward Germany, we Germans shall seek an alliance with Japan. The American people might well reflect whether their interests would be served by forcing Germany into a community of interest with Japan. I was at several events closely and I've noticed a number of anti-German utterances in one of the leading American service papers.

"The Army and Navy Journal publishes an article describing Germany and Japan as the most probable enemies of the United States.

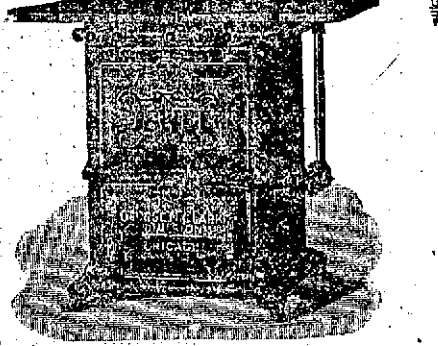

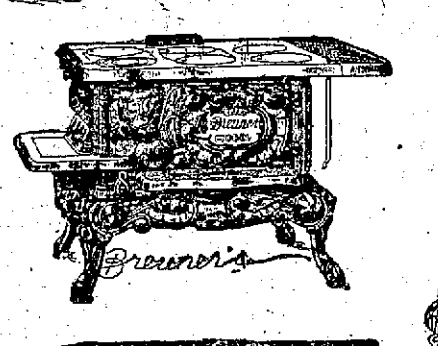

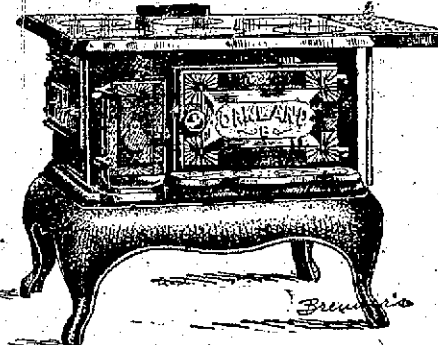

"Admiral Mihan has written a treatise of an anti-German character. American naval officials have delivered speeches of a similar nature. I do not overestimate the significance of these individual utterances nor do I apprehend any real danger to Germany.

"Americans are inclined to assist their strength on an erroneous basis of wealth. Unlimited supplies of money cannot make up for lack of discipline and organization.

"Americans frequently take an exaggerated view of their power and influence which is almost humorous. Nevertheless, Germany cannot, in the long run, ignore unmistakable signs of American animosity to herself. As such indications become marked and continuous, German policy would, as a matter of ordinary common sense and business, aim at co-operation with Japan in joint opposition to the United States."

WILL TEST CATTLE VISALIA, June 8.—The first concerted action to be taken in California looking to the extermination of tuberculosis in dairy cattle was taken when the supervisors appropriated $10,000 for the testing of every one of the 60,000 dairy stock in Tulare county.

SLAVIC PAINTINGS HELD AT $144,319

Value Goes Up From $15,000 When the Appraisers Get Busy.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—The reason for the various mixups over the 440 paintings constituting the Russian art exhibit at the St. Louis fair and soon to be auctioned by the government, became apparent yesterday when the list prepared by appraiser John Matos, putting the value of the lot at $144,319, was filed with the collector of customs. When imported from Canada, fourteen months ago, their value appeared on the invoices as $15,000. If they had been entered here at this sum and if the appraiser had then raised 75 per cent, all would have been settled, a contingent fund of $11,250, the collector, Colonel T. K. Kovalsky and others, claiming an interest, were eager to avoid. So far Matos declined to enter their value. An appraiser Matos refused to do this for him, the collection was suffered to lie in the bonded warehouse till the end of a year, when a public auction was set by the collector for July 17.

To arrive at their value, the appraiser called in various government and outside experts.

The most valuable of the paintings is the "Awaiting the Feast," by Soukhorsky, appraised at $2372. "Emperor Nicholas," by Von Lipfert, goes for $2372. There are four other masterpieces of the Cross, by Makofsky, $1345; "Artist's Dream," by Eberling, and "Storm in Spring," by Khinow, each at $2342; the "Boyarin Marazoff," by Buchholz, $2537; "Napoleon's Last Day," at Moscow, by Pederoff, $1540; "Conservation of the Drift Ship," by Ohloff, $2808; "Towing Barges in the River Volga," by Makofsky, $1835; "In the Lap of Nature," by Beurnin, $1201; "Iran the Terrible," by Heller, $1406.

OHIOAN IS AN ENTRY IN NATIONAL BALLOON RACE

NEW YORK, June 8.—Another entry in the national balloon race of July 10 has been received by the Aero Club of America, the entrant being J. H. Wade of Cleveland, O., who will pilot the Buckeye in the contest. Mr. Wade was in the national race of last year, which started at Indianapolis, and was third in respect to distance, covering 371 miles. He was chosen as one of the members of the international team, but was unable to take part in the event.

WOMAN IS FOUND GUILTY OF FRAUD

Mrs. Inez Peterson, Who Impersonated Another, Convicted by Jury.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—Mrs. Inez C. Peterson, charged with falsely representing herself to be Mrs. Henrietta Farrelly of Oakland in order to get $10,000 from the Frankman investment company last March, was found guilty yesterday and will be sentenced on Saturday.

Mrs. Peterson, upon coming to this city early this year, opened a credit account at the Emporium in the name of Mrs. Farrelly. Accompanied by Attorney Cook, she visited the offices of the Frankman investment company and offered a piece of property on the San Leandro road as security for a loan of $10,000, representing herself as Mrs. Farrelly, its owner.

The offer was accepted, and Mrs. Peterson had the credit man for the Emporium appear at a notary public's office and identify her as Mrs. Henrietta Farrelly of Oakland.

The defense made by Mrs. Peterson was that she committed the criminal act during a period of mental aberration.

SAYS WOOL GROWERS NEED FEAR NOTHING

PENDLETON, Ore., June 8.—Assurances that wool growers have nothing to fear from the present session of Congress with reference to the proposed downward move of the tariff has been received by Dan P. Smythe, secretary of the Oregon State Wool Growers' Association.

The offer which reached Smythe came from Dr. S. W. McClure, secretary of the National Wool Growers' Association, who has been in the national capital. He writes:

"I have gone over the situation in Washington very carefully and feel safe in assuring our wool growers that there will be no legislation affecting the tariff passed at the present session of Congress. The bill as introduced by the Democrats is looked upon as a joke, for it represents no theory of political economy, as it affects neither free trade, revenue nor protection."

GRASS VALLEY, June 8.—The whereabouts of J. J. O. Millar, cashier and director of the Sierra County bank at Layton, is still unknown.

A. S. Nichols, president of the institution, and other stockholders left today for Reno on business. They expect to remain until Saturday, when it is thought they will shoulder the losses and open the bank. The management intended opening the bank yesterday, but did not do so, probably fearing a run and not having sufficient money in the vaults. Millar's shortage is now estimated at between $25,000 and $30,000.

KING JOY TO RULE HOURS

San Leandro Stands Expectant at Threshold of Two Days of Fun.

Feasting and Mirth to Greet Bounteousness of Fruit Harvest

SAN LEANDRO, June 6. —Sun kissed and smiling with the bounties that nature has provided for her in one of the most beautiful vales of California, San Leandro is on the threshold of the most elaborate exhibit of the products of her soil; cherries will be abundant, red and ripe and luscious with the goodness that the season has stored up for a contented people living on the rich, alluvial plain lying between San Francisco bay and the undulating foothills to the eastward. Here is a spot where many years ago pioneers of the land rested on the broad acres with their flocks, their families and all that they possessed of this world's goods, confident, it seemed, in the years that would follow bringing to their descendants, prosperity beyond measure.

The Choicest Cherries

As the South is famous for her orange and lemon groves, as the North for her lumber and mineral products, as other parts of the state claim pre-eminence for their apples, their prunes, their peaches and their apricots, so does San Leandro lay foremost claim to pre-eminence in the production of the choicest cherries of the land. Far and wide as her fame spread, north, east, south and west, wherever people have heard of California, of her fruits and of her soil, the cherries of San Leandro are known and waited for at the beginning of each season.

Since several years ago her enterprising citizens first undertook a celebration to commemorate the season and to advertise the many qualities of the surrounding country, the carnival which is given annually has continually grown in importance, until today it ranks with the several great feature exhibits of the state, taking second place to neither the rose festival of Santa Rosa nor the flower festivals of the South.

Thousands Attracted

People by the thousands are attracted from all over the state to the pretty little town in the valley lying beyond Oakland. Excellent train service from the points about the bay have made it possible for people to make this occasion one of the celebrant features of the year.

On the part of the people who own those broad acres planted to thousands upon thousands of productive cherry orchards, they have shown a spirit unselfish as the sunshine and generous as the warm wind that ripens the fruit which makes the whole countryside famous.

With unstinting hand they pluck the delicious clusters for the benefit of all visitors and spare neither time nor money to make the occasion one to be long remembered in the hearts of those who take advantage of the two June days, to make merry with them, and to carry away, along with their fond recollections, words of praise and commendation for those who have made possible such an enjoyment.

Crowning of Mabel

From the crowning of Queen Mabel to the last handful of confetti thrown in the wild carnival spirit that reigns at the close of the festival, many thousands will have been made glad and in the days that follow will be looking anxiously forward to the next cherry season.

Along with the attractions the excitement in the glory of the day's visitors will find that not the least of the festival is the city itself, for San Leandro is pre-eminently a city of homes. Lying as she does at the very door of a great university, close by to schools and educational institutions of every degree and character, accessible by a net work of interurban railways and steam roads, she enjoys a prestige to be envied by many towns of her size, boasting far greater in commercial importance.

Nature Is Lavish

Nature has lavished gifts of wealth and beauty without reservation. Besides her fruits, her vegetables and the general productivity of her soil, the wide acres form pasturage for hundreds of cattle and dairy products are not the least that the bounteous land gives forth.

In summer and in winter, the people enjoy an out door life which is as perpetual spring. Not far away are accessible fishing, yachting, golfing, driving and hunting, all the sports and pastimes that a community would ordinarily seek.

Exceptional features of merit are found in her beauties of scenery, in her traditions and in the everyday life of her people.

Within a few minutes' car ride of the most rapidly growing city of the Pacific Coast today, her residents are given the advantages of the theater and great metropolitan stores, as well as countless other necessities without having to live in the hustle and turmoil of a congested community.

The carnival, given by these people and in celebration of the cherries that have made them and the land famous, will commence promptly at 7 o'clock Friday night, when Mayor Gill presses the button which will illuminate the entire electrical display of the city, the countless incandescent globes which will sparkle about the plaza, in the trees on nearby streets, and even far away into the outskirts where Chinese lanterns and farm house lights will be left to extend a greeting to all who may come from every direction.

At that time hosts of pleasure seeking citizens and visitors will make merry in the down town district, scattering confetti here and there, tooting horns or taking advantage of the many concessions that have been provided, while others will waltz and two step in the great pavilion to the music of a special orchestra, the whole contributing to a widespread joy, and thanksgiving, as it were, for the season that has made possible such a festival.

Keys of the City

When, on Saturday morning at 11 o'clock Queen Mabel is crowned beneath a flower laden canopy, the keys of the city will be turned over to the carnival committee by Mayor Gill and for the remainder of the day there will be nothing at the command of the people of San Leandro too good to be dispensed among the visitors.

The one feature of the display not to be overlooked will be the cherries themselves, big, red, ripe and flavored with all the richness of the season that will be at every hand, freely dispensed to the visitors, in clusters, in bags, and en branch.

Decorations, the most lavish that have ever been attempted in the "City of Cherries" have been installed, and from the moment that one enters San Leandro, the eye never ceases to take in some new wonderful feature that has been provided by the committee. From every house top and from every flag pole and tree, flags and bunting have been strung, while strings of cherries and festoons of roses and ferns will deck every available nook and corner.

In Blaze of Light

Intermingled will be the additional incandescent lights which will add to the display. Every home in the city has received the particular attention of its owner for the last few weeks in anticipation of the event, and flowers are more profuse than ordinarily bedeck the front yards and hedges and pathways.

Following the coronation the visitors will be treated to the great fruit and floral parade, headed by Queen Mabel and her escort, Don Alonzo Peralta. They will proceed from the royal palace on Estudillo avenue and make their way to the plaza in a large limousine, surrounded by Grand Marshal Reid, his aides and numerous religious and fraternal organizations.

Nearly every order represented in the cities about the bay will have a delegation present and handsome prizes are being offered by the general committee to that organization which makes the best appearance.

Decorated Automobiles

Automobiles profusely decorated with cherries and ferns, together with carriages and business floats will be an additional feature to the parade, with all the business men of the city vying with one another to make the best showing.

Delegations from Hayward, San Leandro, Livermore, Niles, Pleasanton and all the other towns of the Castro and adjacent valleys will be present and from all of these places will come wagon loads of cherries and hundreds of people to take part in the annual festivities. Nothing has been left undone that will add to the attractiveness of the city during the period of merry-making.

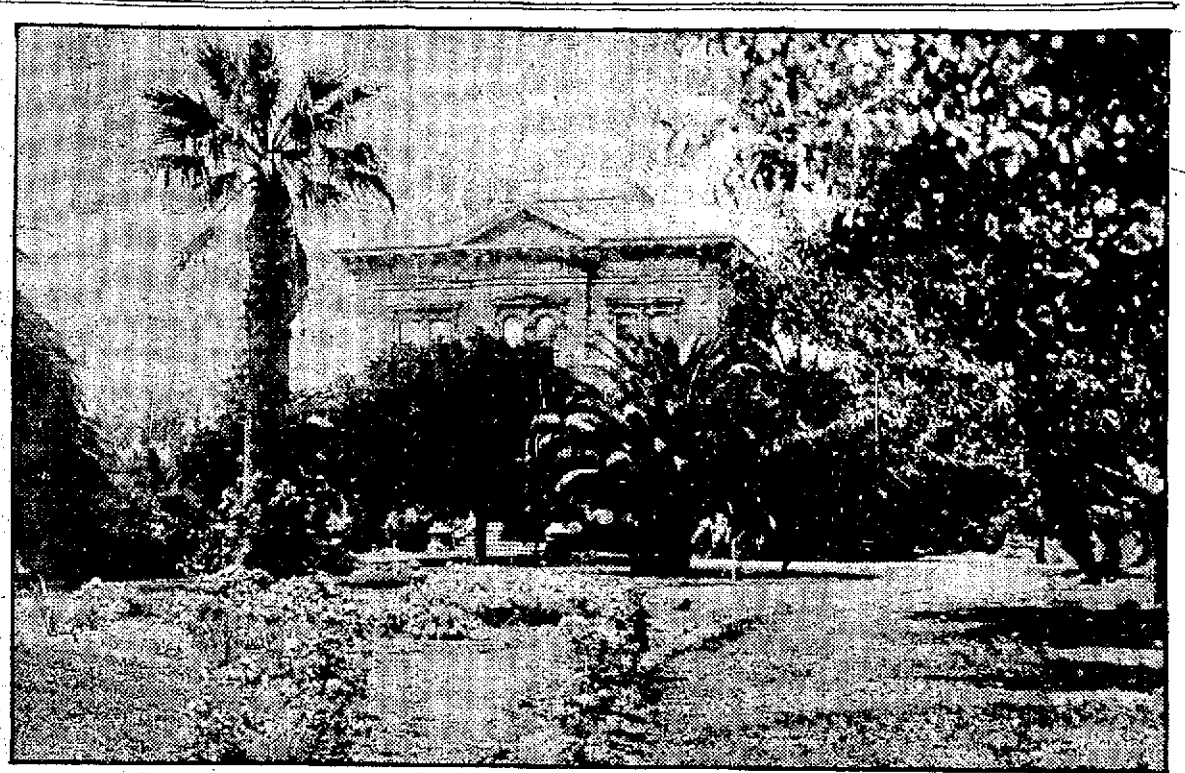

Telephone poles and wires have been festooned, and even the streets have been lined with flowers especially planted for the occasion.

The plaza will be one bower of green, and this place will be the center of prevailing hilarity.

The warm evenings, conducive to elaborate dress on the part of the women will add brilliancy and magnificence to the scene, while bands, scattered here and there, will play sweet and enlivening airs.

Arch of Welcome

The great welcome arch has been installed on the main street of the city just off Hayward avenue, and this will be decorated with branches of cherries, roses and, at night, by electric lights. Dozens of enterprising citizens have been made an especial effort during the last few days to clean up every street in the downtown district so that it will present a spotless appearance to the thousands who visit during the carnival.

Luxuriant, almost tropical, vegetation and shrubbery generally make beautiful the gardens of San Leandro.

The concessions that have been obtained are all of first class and will add to the liveliness of the two days' merry-making. The carnival ball to be held Friday night in Masonic Hall will be an opening feature and in this the exclusive Alta Mira Club is taking a prominent part.

Elaborate Decorations

The decorations of the hall at that time will be perhaps more elaborate than last year, at which time it was thought that the limit of decorative ingenuity had been reached. The same display is manifested throughout the city, owing to the diligence of the young folks who have exerted themselves as never before to make this carnival the greatest of all cherry carnivals that have been held in San Leandro.

From the time that it opens until the close, at a late hour Saturday night, and stretching even into the next day, hundreds of joy-makers will enliven the scene with laughter, song and confetti battles. Men in the regalia of their various fraternal drill teams, and women also in special uniforms representing branches of the different lodges, will be in evidence upon the streets continuously, adding to the brilliancy of the scene.

To Be Well Policed

In order that the public's safety may be provided for, Marshal Geisenhofer has enlisted under him numerous deputies who will see that no rowdyism is permitted upon the street, and that the extent of the joy-making does not overstep the limits of congenial fun and conviviality.

The greatest possible license will be permitted to the visiting hosts so that they will have no cause for complaint of strict observance by the authorities, but all will be expected to enter in to the occasion in a spirit of friendliness and good will for which the people of California are far famed.

The festival of last year has gone down in history and had added one more to the famous number of similar occasions given by the people of San Leandro. From the first it has been the intent of the committee in charge to make this even more renowned as an exhibit of products augmented by the customary carnival features than has ever before been attempted.

That San Leandro shall become synonymous with cherries and cherry festivals, is the desire of the Board of Trade and the people who annually contribute so lavishly to the event.

It has been estimated that this year more than twenty-five tons of ripe cherries of the different varieties will be distributed among the visitors without any cost whatever, giving them a souvenir that will carry a lasting impression of the gladness of the carnival days.

Dance and Song

As a fitting climax to this wonderful, yet home-like display of color, of life, of music and gaiety, the entire population, both permanent and transient, people from the cherry orchards nearby, from the surrounding canyons which stretch to the hills beyond, from the cities about the bay and from communities yet farther, will join in one mad outburst of dance and song that will enliven the early morning hours, and stretch even into the sunrise of the next day.

By the time that the bands cease playing the well worn accordion and the ancient fiddle will be brought into service and the streets, the sidewalks and the plaza will be transformed into a great outdoor ballroom, surrounded on every side by evidence of nature's gifts to the people of the community, the floor, as it were, strewn with confetti and still reverberating with the hilarity stored up by two days of unrestrained pleasure, and the dance of the night will commence.

Spirit of Revelry

It will be as a mad outburst of what enthusiasm has remained stored in the hearts of the people, innocent in its enactment, yet imbued with a true spirit of revelry, yet with all a chivalry entirely in keeping with the setting that nature has bestowed and that the traditions of a home-loving people have made famous throughout the country. It will set a precedent for similar occasions that in the years are to follow for San Leandro has not entered into the annual cherry festival without a consideration of what such a feature means to a community. It is the intention of her people to make each season's greeting more profuse than that which went before, and with the passing of time, and with the experience gained, in each production, it is assured the people of the bay cities of Alameda county and the state at large that of all the unique annual festivals for which California is famous, the San Leandro cherry carnival is to take a place unsurpassed by any.

Grand Marshal Charles Reid, with many of his aides from San Leandro and many of the outside towns will head the royal parade in its line of march from the plaza. Following this will come a platoon of uniformed police from the Oakland station. The rest of the line will be made up of a platoon of cadets from the United States Naval Station at Yerba Buena Island accompanied by a band of thirty-five pieces, Company H, National Guard, of Hayward, under the command of Captain Charles Borree will act as bodyguard to county officials, and officials from Hayward and San Leandro, in carriages and automobiles.

The second division will be headed by Marshal Borge accompanied by his aides, E. K. Ströbridge and William B. Bridges. The Union band will then take up its position ahead of a squadron of 250 school children marching beside and in the rear of the royal float upon which will be Queen Mabel and her royal escort, King Don Alonzo. Girls in white dresses and carrying parasols will take up their places on a float to be decorated with flowers and greens, along with decorated fire wagons.

All the Native Sons will be accompanied by a band from their parlor. The Woodmen of the World with the lodge of U. P. E. C. and the U. P. E. C. band will then take their places in the long line. Colored floats from all the fraternal orders and various parlors of the "Natives" will help swell the line.

The Suffrage League

In the fourth and last division, the Alameda County Suffrage League will fight for the first place, or the lead in the procession with the Grand Marshal, W. E. Oakes and his aides, Jesse H. Woods and W. J. Ramage. Scattered throughout the line at the latter portion after the royal float will be clowns galore. Funny men to tickle your funny bone, D. C. Moore will be the leader of his band of merry fellows and if any body can make the boys take after the glooms and scatter them to the four winds, it is this same man Moore. The Oakland Boys' Club will stand on their heads in direct variance to the rules set down by the clowns. They will have their band with them, however, and will disperse all the glooms. Following these will come the members of the San Leandro Boys' Club in full uniform.

Boy Scouts in Line

The feature of this fourth division will not be the clowns or the rest of the line-ups. The Boy Scouts of America, those little fellows with the olive colored suits will keep the crowd interested in the marches and countermarches. This company gathered from all over the county will march for a silk flag.

During the day, automobiles covered from the very wheels to the tops with flowers and greens, not to speak of the clusters of cherries, will parade before a line of judges for a silver cup. In the night the autos will be illuminated with small electric lights. Business floats, decorated carriages and a German band, right over from the "old sod" will wind up the line.

One of the feature floats of the fraternal orders will be the large one representing the Wahnita Tribe, No. 107, Improved Order of Redmen. The float will be made to represent the landing of Columbus in America, with the Indians looking down on the strange spectacle of a ship, so large in proportion, coming into their domain. The Drill teams of the Redmen from Fruitvale, Oakland and San Jose Tribes will be present in line and after the procession will offer a competitive drill on Estudillo avenue.

The booth to be erected by the members of the Alameda County Suffrage League will be one of the most attractive on the entire concession grounds. Flags and banners encouraging the male and female residents and visitors to join the line of the "votes for women" will be on sale while buttons and pins urging the same will be pinned on the lapels of the coats of the men by dozens of pretty maids. Who would not allow a pretty maid, if she approached you with her best smile, to pin a button on your coat, even if it might be a suffrage pin.

A Bumper Crop

Pink lemonade, upon which all the small boys and girls can secure their fill will be on sale everywhere, while the booths at which the populace can secure all the cherries they can possibly eat and carry away will be stationed at every corner. Cherries! Why you can get all the cherries you want, this year's will be the bumper crop, in the large juicy blacks, which will make the mouth water even when hanging from the tree limbs. This will not be the case of the fox and the grapes for the fruit will be in reach of all and if they don't get some it will be no one's fault but their own.

Here is a product of San Leandro far more precious than the wealth of her orchards and typical of the robust childhood that flourishes where fat lands tell of universal prosperity.

these boosters, councilmen, merchants and other members of the fraternal orders of the "Island City" will march in the line of the parade.

Display of Floats

Hayward will be there with floats displaying the fruit and vegetables that can be grown on the perfect soil in their section of the county and several floats displaying the types of pretty girls covered from head to foot with flowers of all kinds and colors will make one of the largest displays in the line. One float, along with samples of the fruit and flowers, will take up a space of about forty feet long by twenty feet wide.

Land of Sunshine

Cherry-time coming as it does at this season of the year promises weather appropriate to the occasion and it is with almost certainty that the countless people who journey to San Leandro on Friday and Saturday will be rewarded with sunshine, flowers and cherries, the bounty of a lavish land.

From Oakland the route continues along orchard lined avenues, the green of the foliage stretching as far as the eye can reach and flanked by hills still retaining their springtime garments. Beautiful homes set back from the thoroughfares and embanked with palms and eucalyptus trees, broad expanse of lawn lying between, add to the luxuriant feast of the eyes while the nostrils are greeted with balmy odors arising from the countryside and dispersed throughout the atmosphere.

Place For Recreation

Away from the city's smoke and noise to such a scene is enough to entice the overburdened thousands who await the least excuse to hie away to the fields, and to the orchards where the very air is new and where they may be permitted for the time being to give full vent to the restrained enthusiasm that has accumulated during months of confinement to multitudinous tasks.

The greatest crowd that has ever been attracted to San Leandro is expected by those who have had in charge the arrangements for the festival. Mayor J. J. Gill has been extremely active in promoting the annual occasion and it was with some degree of satisfaction that he declared today that the details had been completed and that all left to be done was the receiving of the hosts.

Nothing Left Undone

Cherries have been assured by the wagon load and the orchards have given up their choicest fruit for the benefit of the visitors. Nothing has been left undone that will add to the attractiveness of the display even to the concessions, which have been selected from among the most interesting and fun-making known to such affairs.

Ranchers have saved the best of their orchards for the exhibit as it is felt among the growers that the display made at this time will do more to advertise San Leandro than any amount of money otherwise expended.

Mayor Is Delighted

"We are ready for the people," said Mayor Gill, "and we trust that they will come in greater numbers than last year for that occasion is a pleasant memory with our people. San Leandro is eager at least once a year to contribute her share to advertising the state and it is a well known fact that not only people who are near-by residents but that thousands of tourists present in the bay cities take advantage of the Cherry Carnival to get their fill of the fruit when it is in its prime in California—the land they have journeyed perhaps thousands of miles to visit.

"The expense of the production is not considered, but at that it will be immense, counting the decorations and the great amount of cherries used. These cherries are of the varieties that if sent to the Eastern markets would bring vast returns to the orchardists and well may people say that they have been in Cherry-land at the conclusion of the carnival."

Along the Highway

Hayward is lending her assistance to the festivities as are all the other towns along the old county highway which in the old days led through the land grants of the old Spanish settlers.

Outside of the interest evolving about the carnival, San Leandro is famous as one of the oldest towns of the county and the former county seat of Alameda county in the days before Oakland had gained the slightest prestige. Many of the old houses still stand, and the plaza is a relic of the days before the Civil War. On it now is installed a brass cannon captured in the Philippines during the Spanish-American war. A great many of the old buildings were destroyed, however, about 1868.

Promotion Results

"These cherry festivals which the people of San Leandro have been giving for the past three years and especially the amount of cherries which are given away to the public each year are the talk of the entire United States," stated C. Q. Rideout, when approached on the subject.

"I have received papers from the Eastern cities, where cherries are now selling at a very high rate per pound and in all of these the residents of San Leandro have been put down as people with a great wish to waste good United States dollars and cents. In New York the other day, one of the leading dailies printed an article in which they called the people of the west, and especially the people of Alameda county, millionaires. It went on to state and explain that only such people would attempt to give such a quantity of high-priced fruit away.

Favorable Conditions

"The people of the East and in many of the cities of the Western states do not realize the good conditions under which the farmers and fruit growers of California and San Leandro work. In some of our valleys, not far from the main street in the town many of the best tropical fruits can be grown without the least bit of trouble. Toward the hills, oranges grow ripe while lemons are a common sight even in the heart of the town."

Farm and Orchard

W. J. Andrade, one of the most prominent business men and a prominent member of the Board of Trustees is very confident that San Leandro, within a course of a few years will exceed any other city in this section of the state in the value of farm and orchard.

"We have the climate and we have the soil, we have and are getting better facilities every day for the handling of our products," stated Andrade. "With the Western Pacific Railroad and the Southern Pacific Railroad at the southern end of the town, not to speak of the suburban service of the Oakland Traction Company and the Southern Pacific at the eastern section. Within the next six months, the latter named company will be running fast electric trains from the Oakland Mole to the eastern limits of Hayward. This line will do away with a great deal of the congested conditions on the East Fourteenth street line of the Traction Company."

Long Well Known

"From the time when the first white man came from San Francisco to this side of the bay, San Leandro has been heard from all over the United States," so stated M. S. Rogers, one of the most prominent members of the executive committee.

"Many years ago several cattle men located in San Leandro came over to this side of the bay in a small row boat. The first spot they struck was San Leandro. From that time San Leandro has been growing until at the present time it is one of the best towns in the entire county.

Large Oyster Beds

"On the southern section of the bay shore, large oyster beds which supply most of the local trade are located. The rumor has been circulated through the town that a company with a capital of $50,000 has made arrangements with the Trustees for a tract of land near the other beds, making these shores the most popular on the coast."

D. U. Tofflemire, Justice of the Peace of San Leandro and one of the hardest working members of the committee of arrangements is very jubilant over the third holding of the festival and stated emphatically that this year's displays will be the greatest that has ever been held.

Up-to-Date Methods

"This year we have more money than we had in the preceding years," stated Tofflemire. "We have more up-to-date methods of doing the work and we have the backing of the other cities of the county for which we are very thankful. Hayward has come to the front with a great show of loyalty and has offered all the aid that we can possibly need. The other cities down the county have also come to the front and business men have made arrangements with the committee for the entering of their floats. Farmers throughout the county and even men who do not make a business of raising cherries for market have come to the fore and promised that we can have all the fruit on their trees. This will be the greatest festival that has ever been held in the entire county. Take that from me."

Welcome to All

W. J. Gannon, secretary of the Carnival Committee is also enthusiastic over the prospects for the annual reception that San Leandro gives to her neighbors. "A most hearty welcome is extended to every one, rich and poor, who would have a feast of cherries. Cherries are our long suit down in this part of Alameda county and we want nothing better than an opportunity to exhibit them when they are prime. From the Royal Anne to the Red, White and McClelland varieties, they are all grown here and at their best."

Additional street car facilities have been arranged for with the Oakland Traction Company, the Southern Pacific and the Western Pacific railroads so that all crowds will be handled in the best manner possible.

Eager School Children

School children by the hundreds are looking forward eagerly to the day when they can pack their lunch baskets and go for a frolic in the land of cherries. It is safe to say that for the last few weeks many a tired youngster has passed night after night dreaming of cherries, hanging in luscious clusters from the boughs or reposing in tattered hat or basket ready to be pitted at ease on some grassy spot. Turned loose in a veritable garden with nothing to do but fill up on the toothsome fruit, is a pleasure that comes but once in a year and that is remembered by the old with fondness as they look back to the days when they climbed the cherry trees in June.

THE BEST MANUFACTURING CO. INC.

Manufacturers of Horse Power Combined Harvesting Machines, Steam Plowing Engines, Traction Engines, Etc.

A GOOD DESCRIPTION OF THIS WONDERFUL PLANT

Located between the Southern Pacific and Western Pacific roads, it is one of the largest and oldest manufacturing plants on the coast devoted to the construction of Combined Harvesting machines and Traction Engines.

Established in 1871, forty years ago, The Best Manufacturing Company has grown and developed until today its products have a world-wide reputation, shipping to all parts of the Pacific coast, as well as exporting these modern and up-to-date machines to Canada, Mexico, Central and South America, Spain, India, Manchuria, and Mongolia in China.

The plant as it exists today covers over six acres, and employs from 150 to 250 men. It is composed of a series of one and two-story buildings, all replete with the latest mechanical equipment, and is thoroughly up-to-date in every particular. It is said that the investment represented by this plant will exceed $400,000. Some idea of the magnitude of the works can be secured from the accompanying photographs.

The reputation of The Best Manufacturing Company is probably better known through the merits of their celebrated Steam and Horse-power Harvesters and Traction Engines.

These machines were awarded the highest premium at California State fairs and also at the Lewis and Clark exposition at Portland, Oregon.

Their Combined Harvesting machines are a marvel of simplicity, and are used equally well on hill-side or valley, yet possess a durability of construction that insures its efficiency and economy. One of these horse-power machines will cut, thresh, re-clean and sack 40 to 45 acres per day, and one of their steam machines has a capacity of 65 to 100 acres of grain per day, and at an expense not to exceed 50 to 75 cents per acre. By the old method it costs $2.50 to $2.50 per acre, or in other words, the cost of harvesting the wheat crop of the U. S. last year was approximately 18 cents per bushel, while the Pacific coast farmer using The Best Combined Harvester, is placing his wheat in the sack for 5 cents per bushel, and adding 3 cents for sacks, the total cost of his grain ready for market is but 8 cents. It is also said that four million acres were planted to grain in the Pacific coast States last season with a total of eighty million bushels, fifty per cent of which was harvested with Combined Harvesters, resulting in a saving of four million dollars in harvesting expenses alone.

Another product that has added to the fame of this firm is their celebrated Steam Traction Engine, more than three hundred of which are in successful operation; a machine which will plow, harrow and seed from 45 to 75 acres per day. The Best Manufacturing Company is always working to keep abreast of the times; they are offering a Gasoline Traction Engine that has been put to the most severe tests, both in the field plowing and on the road for freighting, and it has been found to be capable of fully meeting all demands made upon it.

With the consent of the management we are able to show here illustrations of these modern labor-saving farming machines.

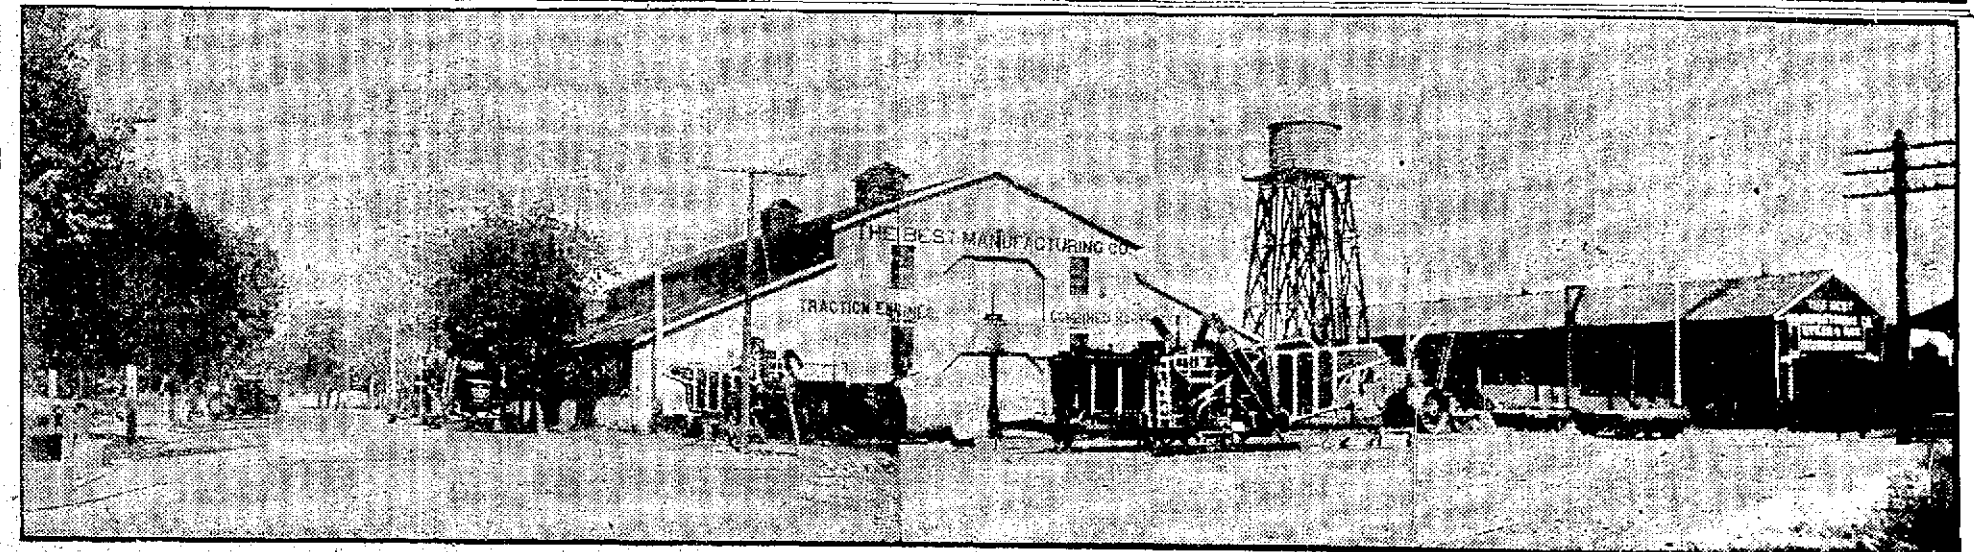

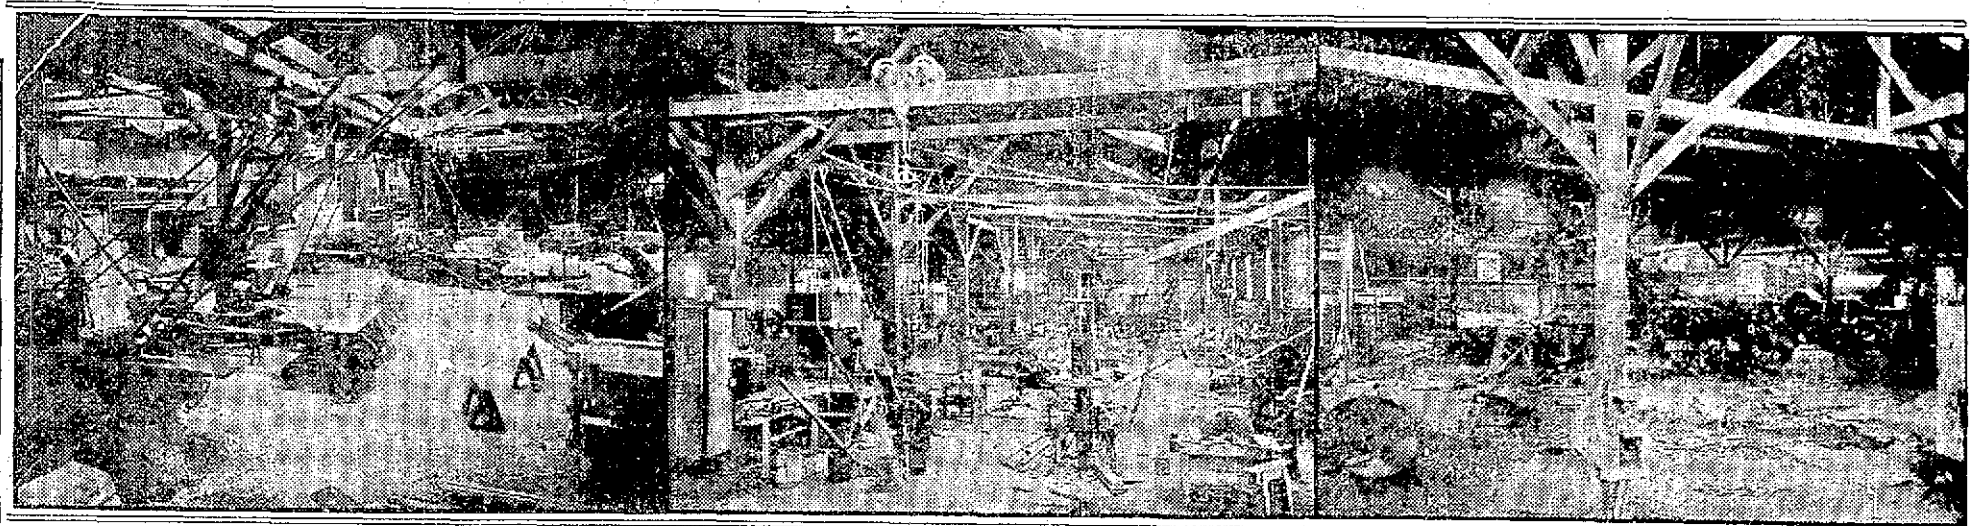

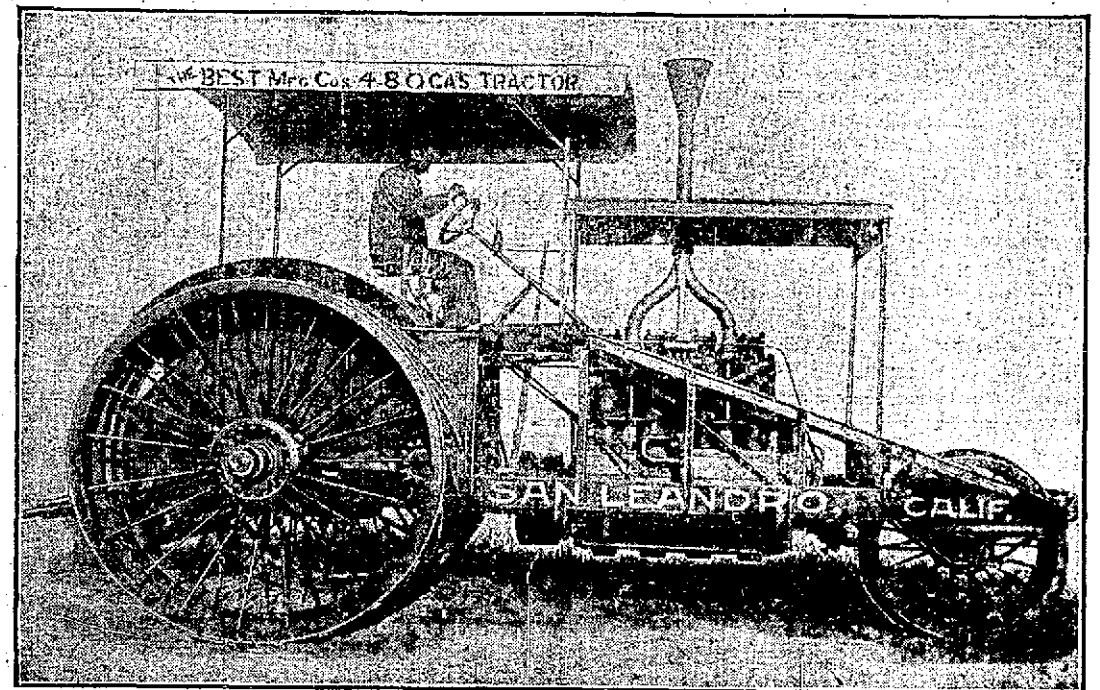

Seventy-five years ago the grain crop was harvested by hand, and it is estimated that each bushel of grain produced required the time of three men. The self-binder and stationary threshing machine cut this down to ten minutes, but the limit was not reached, for now the user of the Combined Harvester prepares the farmers' grain for market in the incredibly short space of one minute per bushel.

Careful observation of hundreds of users of these up-to-date machines has demonstrated that from one to two bushels more grain per acre are saved over the old method of harvesting. Placing it at one bushel, the gain to the farmers using these machines totaled over two million bushels, or nearly two million dollars. It is therefore plainly to be seen that it is merely a question of time when Combined Harvesters will supplant the binder and stationary thresher in every grain-growing country in the world, for the reason that if the farmer is to continue to produce a fair return on his investment he must reduce the cost of production.

The Best Manufacturing Company is composed of men who thoroughly understand their business, and who give the greatest care to every detail of building their machines. This feature has been the means of enabling them to attain the fame and success for which they are so well known.

The personnel of the company consists of C. Parker Holt, president; F. O. Meyers, vice-president and general manager; Geo. H. Cowie, second vice-president; C. A. Bachelder, treasurer, and W. S. Peters, secretary.
